the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business of the Managers, and the act of a majority of the Managers present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Managers. A Manager who is present at a meeting of the Managers at which action on any Company matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall deliver such dissent to the Company immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a Manager who voted in favor of such action.

- (b) Meetings of the Managers may be held at such place or places as shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Managers. At all meetings of the Managers, business shall be transacted in such order as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Managers. Attendance of a Manager at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Manager attends a meeting for the purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
- (c) In connection with any annual meeting of Members at which Managers were elected, the Managers may, if a quorum is present, hold their first meeting for the transaction of business immediately after and at the same place as such annual meeting of the Members. Notice of such meeting at such time and place shall not be required.
- (d) Regular meetings of the Managers shall be held at such times and places as shall be designated from time to time by resolution of the Managers. Notice of such regular meetings shall not be required.
- (e) Special meetings of the Managers may be called by any Manager on at least 24 hours written notice to each other Manager. Such notice need not state the purpose or purposes of, nor the business to be transacted at, such meeting, except as may otherwise be required by law or provided for by the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement. Notice of special meetings may be given by facsimile or electronic message (e-mail).
- 6.010 Approval or Ratification of Acts or Contracts by Members. The Managers in their discretion may submit any act or contract for approval or ratification at any annual meeting of the Members, or at any special meeting of the Members called for the purpose of considering any such act or contract. Any act or contract that shall be approved or be ratified by a majority of the Managers shall be as valid and as binding upon the Company and upon all the Members as if it shall have been approved or ratified by every Member of the Company.
- 6.11 Action Without Meeting. Any action permitted or required by the TBOC, the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement to be taken at a meeting of the Managers or any committee designated by the Managers may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, is signed by all the Managers or members of such committee, as the case may be. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each Manager who signs the consent, and the consent may be in one or more counterparts. A telegram, telex, cablegram or similar transmission by a Manager, or a photographic, photostatic, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing signed by a Manager, shall be regarded as signed by the Manager for purposes of this paragraph. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting and may be stated as such in any document or instrument filed with the Secretary of State of Texas, and the execution of such consent shall constitute attendance or presence in person at a meeting of the Managers or any such committee, as the case may be. The signed consent or a signed copy of the consent shall be kept on file at the principal office of the Company.

- 6.12 Action by Telephone Conference or Other Remote Communications Technology. Subject to the requirements of the TBOC, the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement for notice of meetings, unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Formation, Managers, or members of any committee designated by the Managers, may participate in and hold a meeting of the Managers or any committee of Managers, as the case may be, by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Or, another suitable electronic communications system may be used including video-conferencing technology or the Internet, but only if each Manager entitled to participate in the meeting consents to the meeting being held by means of that system and the system provides access to the meeting in a manner or using a method by which each Manager participating in the meeting can communicate concurrently with each other participant. Participation in such meeting shall constitute attendance and presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
- 6.13 Broad Discretion and Authority of Managers. Each Member acknowledges and understands that the Managers are granted broad discretion and authority under this Agreement and that the Managers' exercise of such broad discretion and authority may impair the value of the Membership Interest of the Member. Such Member further acknowledges and understands that the Managers would not cause the Company to issue a Membership Interest to the Member if the Managers did not have such broad discretion and authority, and such Member agrees not to challenge the Manager's exercise of such discretion and authority.

ARTICLE VII CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

7.01 Confidential Information. The Members agree that the Managers from time to time may determine, due to contractual obligations, business concerns, or other considerations, that certain information regarding the business, affairs, properties, and financial condition of the Company should be kept confidential and not provided to some or all other Members, and that it is not just or reasonable for those Members or assignees or representatives thereof to examine or copy that information. The Members acknowledge that, from time to time, they may receive information from or regarding the Company in the nature of trade secrets or that otherwise is confidential, the release of which may be damaging to the Company or persons with which it does business. Each Member shall hold in strict confidence any information it receives regarding the Company that is identified as being confidential (and if that information is provided in writing, that is so marked) and may not disclose it to any person other than another Member or a Manager, except for disclosures (i) compelled by law (but the Member must notify the Managers promptly of any request for that information, before disclosing it, if practicable), (ii) to advisers or representatives of the Member or persons to which that Member's Membership Interest may be transferred as permitted by this Agreement, but only if the recipients have agreed to be bound by the provisions of this paragraph, or (iii) of information that Member also has received from a source independent of the Company that the Member reasonably believes obtained that information without breach of any obligation of confidentiality.

Company Agreement Venus59, LLC 7.02. Specific Performance. The Members acknowledge that breach of the provisions of paragraph 7.01 of this Agreement may cause irreparable injury to the Company for which monetary damages are inadequate, difficult to compute, or both. Accordingly, the Members agree that the provisions of paragraph 7.01 of this Agreement may be enforced by specific performance.

ARTICLE VIII MEETING OF MEMBERS

8.01 Meetings.

- (a) A quorum shall be present at a meeting of Members if the holders of a Simple Majority are represented at the meeting in person or by proxy. With respect to any matter, other than a matter for which the affirmative vote of the holders of a specified portion of the Percentage Interests of all Members entitled to vote is required by the TBOC or this Agreement, the affirmative vote of a Simple Majority at a meeting of Members at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Members, except as provided by another specific provision in this Agreement.
- (b) All meetings of the Members shall be held at the principal place of business of the Company or at such other place within or outside the State of Texas as shall be specified or fixed in the notices or waivers of notice thereof; provided that any or all Members may participate in any such meetings by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment pursuant to paragraph 8.06 of this Agreement.
- (c) Notwithstanding the other provisions of the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement, the chairman of the meeting or the holders of a Super Majority shall have the power to adjourn such meeting from time to time, without any notice other than announcement at the meeting of the time and place of the holding of the adjourned meeting. If such meeting is adjourned by the Members, such time and place shall be determined by a vote of the holders of a Super Majority. Upon the resumption of such adjourned meeting, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.
- (d) An annual meeting of the Members, for the election of the Managers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, shall be held at such place, within or outside the State of Texas, on such date and at such time as the Managers shall fix and set forth in the notice of the meeting, which date shall be within thirteen (13) months subsequent to the date of organization of the Company or the last annual meeting of Members, whichever most recently occurred.
- (e) Special meetings of the Members for any proper purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Managers or the holders of at least ten percent of the Percentage Interests of all Members. If not otherwise stated in or fixed in accordance with the remaining provisions hereof, the record date for determining Members entitled to call a special meeting is the date any Member first signs the notice of that meeting. Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the notice (or waiver thereof) required by this Agreement may be conducted at a special meeting of the Members.
- (f) Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the Managers or person calling the meeting, to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, any such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the Member at his address on the voting list provided for in paragraph 8.02 of this Agreement, with postage thereon prepaid.

- (g) The date on which notice of a meeting of Members is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Managers declaring a distribution is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for the determination of the Members entitled to notice of or to vote at such meeting, including any adjournment thereof, or the Members entitled to receive such distribution.
- (h) Notice of meetings may be given to Members by facsimile or electronic message (e-mail).
- 8.02 Voting List. The Managers shall make, at least ten (10) days before each meeting of Members, a complete list of the Members entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the Percentage Interests held by each. For a period of ten (10) days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept on file at the registered office or principal place of business of the Company and shall be subject to inspection by any Member at any time during usual business hours. Such list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any Member during the whole time of the meeting. The original membership records shall be prima-facie evidence as to who are the Members entitled to examine such list or transfer records or to vote at any meeting of Members. Failure to comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall not affect the validity of any action taken at the meeting.
- 8.03 Proxies. A Member may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the Member. A telegram, telex, cablegram or similar transmission by the Member, or a photographic, photostatic, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing executed by the Member shall be treated as an execution in writing for purposes of this paragraph. Proxies for use at any meeting of Members or in connection with the taking of any action by written consent shall be filed with the Managers, before or at the time of the meeting or execution of the written consent, as the case may be. All proxies shall be received and taken charge of and all ballots shall be received and canvassed by the Managers, who shall decide all questions touching upon the qualification of voters, the validity of the proxies, and the acceptance or rejection of votes, unless an inspector or inspectors shall have been appointed by the chairman of the meeting, in which event such inspector or inspectors shall decide all such questions. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A proxy shall be revocable unless the proxy form conspicuously states that the proxy is irrevocable and the proxy is coupled with an interest. Should a proxy designate two or more persons to act as proxies, unless that instrument shall provide to the contrary, a majority of such persons present at any meeting at which their powers thereunder are to be exercised shall have and may exercise all the powers of voting or giving consents thereby conferred, or if only one be present, then such powers may be exercised by that one; or, if an even number attend and a majority do not agree on any particular issue, the Company shall not be required to recognize such proxy with respect to such issue if such proxy does not specify how the Percentage Interests that are the subject of such proxy are to be voted with respect to such issue.
 - 8.04 Conduct of Meetings. All meetings of the Members shall be presided over by the chairman of the meeting, who shall be a Manager (or representative thereof) designated by a majority of the Managers. The chairman of any meeting of Members shall determine the order of business and the procedure at the meeting, including the regulation of the manner of voting and the conduct of discussion.

8.05 Action by Unanimous Written Consent Without Meeting.

- (a) Any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, by unanimous written consent of the Members or committee members, as the case may be, setting forth the action so taken. No written consent shall be effective to take the action that is the subject to the consent unless, within sixty (60) days after the date of the earliest dated consent delivered to the Company in the manner required by this paragraph, the signed consent or consents are delivered to the Company by delivery to its registered office, its principal place of business, or the Managers. Delivery shall be by hand or certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Delivery to the Company's principal place of business shall be addressed to the Managers. Each written consent shall bear the date of signature of each Member who signs the consent, and the consent may be in one or more counterparts. A telegram, telex, cablegram or similar transmission by a Member, or a photographic, photostatic, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing signed by a Member, shall be regarded as signed by the Member for purposes of this paragraph. The signed consent or a signed copy of the consent shall be kept on file at the principal office of the Company.
- (b) The record date for determining Members entitled to consent to action in writing without a meeting shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the Company by delivery to its registered office, its principal place of business, or the Managers. Delivery shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Delivery to the Company's principal place of business shall be addressed to the Managers.
- (c) If any action by Members is taken by written consent, any articles or documents filed with the Secretary of State of Texas as a result of the taking of the action shall state, in lieu of any statement required by the TBOC concerning any vote of Members, that written consent has been given in accordance with the provisions of the TBOC and that any written notice required by the TBOC has been given.
- 8.06 Action by Telephone Conference or Other Remote Communications Technology. Members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Or, another suitable electronic communications system may be used including video-conferencing technology or the Internet, but only if each member entitled to participate in the meeting consents to the meeting being held by means of that system and the system provides access to the meeting in a manner or using a method by which each member participating in the meeting can communicate concurrently with each other participant. Participation in such meeting shall constitute attendance and presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
 - 8.07 Classes of Members; Voting. At an annual or special meeting called for that purpose,

Any officers so designated shall have such authority and perform such duties as the Managers may, from time to time, delegate to them. The Managers may assign titles to particular officers. Unless the Managers decide otherwise, if the title is one commonly used for officers of a business corporation, the assignment of such title shall constitute the delegation to such officer of the authority and duties that are normally associated with that office, subject to any specific delegation of authority and duties made to such officer by the Managers pursuant to this paragraph. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall be duly designated and qualify for such office, until his death, or until he shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company (other than Manager) may be filled by the Managers. Any number of offices may be held by the one person.
- 9.02. Compensation. The salaries or other compensation, if any, of the officers and agents of the Company shall be fixed from time to time by the Managers. However, election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself, nor shall anything in this Agreement, create contract rights.
- 9.03. Resignation. Any officer may resign as such at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the Managers. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation.
- 9.04. Removal. Any officer may be removed as such, either with or without cause, by the Managers whenever in their judgment the best interests of the Company will be served thereby; provided, however, that such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed.
- 9.05 Appointment of Officers. The President is Tim Barton. The Secretary and Treasurer is Saskya Bedoya. The President shall have the same rights, powers, and authorities as that of the Manager on a non-exclusive basis. 10.02 Advance Payment. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall include the right to be paid or reimbursed by the Company the reasonable expenses incurred by a person of the type entitled to be indemnified under paragraph 10.01 of this Agreement who was, is or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a Proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding and without any determination as to the person's ultimate entitlement to indemnification; provided, however, that the payment of such expenses incurred by any such person in advance of the final disposition of a Proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the Company of a written affirmation by such person of his or her good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under this Article and a written undertaking, by or on behalf of such person, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such indemnified person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article or otherwise.

10.03 Indemnification of Officers, Employees and Agents. The Company, by adoption of a resolution of the Managers, may indemnify and advance or reimburse expenses to an officer, employee or agent of the Company to the same extent and subject to the same conditions under which it may indemnify and advance expenses to Managers under this Article; and, the Company may indemnify and advance or reimburse expenses to persons who are not or were not Managers, officers, employees, or agents of the Company but who are or were serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in such a capacity or arising out of his status as such a person to the same extent that it may indemnify and advance expenses to Managers under this Article.

- 10.06 Insurance. The Company may purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any person who is a Member or was serving as a Manager, officer, employee or agent of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under this Article.

ARTICLE XIII TRANSFERS

13.01 Limited Right to Transfer. No Member or Assignee shall make any Transfer of all or any part of its Membership Interest, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, except (a) with the unanimous consent of the Managers; (b) as provided by Article XIV of this Agreement; (c) as a Defaulting Member as provided by paragraph 15.01(f) of this Agreement; or (d) upon winding up or termination, as provided by paragraph 16.03 of this Agreement. Any attempted Transfer by a person of an interest or right, or any part thereof, in or in respect of the Company other than as specifically provided by this Agreement shall be, and is hereby declared, null and void ab initio.

13.02 Rights of an Assignee.

- (a) Unless and until an Assignee becomes a Substituted Member of the Company as provided in this Agreement, the Assignee shall be entitled only to (i) allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit, or similar items, and to receive distributions to which the assignor is entitled to the extent these items were assigned, and (ii) reasonable information or account of transactions of the Company and to make reasonable inspection of the books and records of the Company. The Membership Interest of the Assignee shall not be considered in the voting requirements of the Company, and the Assignee shall have no right to participate in the operations or management of the Company.
- (b) In the event that the Members make additional contributions to the Company which the Membership Interest is held by an Assignee, the Assignor Member and its Assignee shall be jointly and severally liable for the corresponding contribution in connection with the Membership Interest held by Assignee. If the Assignor Member or Assignee does not make such contribution in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, then the Assignor Member and Assignee shall be treated as being in Default. In the event that one or more new Members are admitted into the Company, or one or more existing Members increase their Membership Interest, the Membership Interest of the Assignee may be correspondingly reduced and no consent or other action on the part of such Assignee shall be required.
- 13.03 Legal Opinion. For the right of a Member to transfer a Membership Interest or any part thereof or of any Person to be admitted to the Company in connection therewith to exist or be exercised, the Company must receive an opinion from legal counsel acceptable to the Managers that states (a) the Transfer is exempt from registration under federal and state securities laws, (b) the Transfer will not cause the Company to be in violation of federal and state securities laws, (c) the Transfer will not adversely affect the status of the Company as a partnership under the Internal Revenue Code or Treasury Regulations, and (d) the Transfer will not result in the Company's being considered to have terminated within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code or Treasury Regulations. The Managers, however, may waive the requirements of this paragraph.
- 13.04 Admission as Substituted Member. An Assignee has the right to be admitted to the Company as a Substituted Member with the Percentage Interest and the Capital Commitment so transferred to such person, in the event that:
 - (a) the Member making such Transfer grants the Assignee the right to be so admitted;

- (c) a written, signed and dated instrument evidencing the Transfer has been filed with the Company in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Managers, and said instrument contains (i) the agreement by the Assignee to be bound by all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, (ii) any necessary or advisable representations and warranties, including that the Transfer was made in accordance with all applicable laws, regulations, and securities laws, (iii) the Percentage Interests and the Capital Commitments after the Transfer of the Member effecting the Transfer and the person to which the Membership Interest of part thereof is transferred (which together must total the Percentage Interest and the Capital Commitment of the Member effecting the Transfer before the Transfer) and (iv) the name, address and any other pertinent information necessary for amended Exhibit A and to make distributions.
- 13.05 Transfer to Existing Member. In the event of a Transfer to an existing Member, the existing Member shall be automatically deemed to be a Substituted Member.
- 13.06 Third Party Offer. In the event a Member desires to sell all or any portion of its Membership Interest to another person (other than an existing Member), the selling Member shall first offer to sell the Membership Interest to the other existing Members. Upon the receipt of an offer from a Third Party to purchase such Membership Interest, the selling Member shall promptly deliver a copy of the Third Party offer to all other Members. Each Member will have fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of the Third Party offer to notify the selling Member in writing that the other Member intends to purchase the Membership Interest upon the terms and conditions of the Third Party offer. If more than one other Member desires to purchase the Membership Interest, each of the purchasing Members shall purchase a portion of the Membership Interest that is proportional to that Member's Percentage Interest. If none of the other Members give notification within fifteen (15) days of an intention to purchase the Membership Interest, then the selling Member shall be permitted to sell the Membership Interest to the Third Party upon the terms and conditions of the Third Party offer.
- 13.07 Reasonable Expenses. The Member effecting a Transfer and the Substituted Member shall pay, or reimburse the Company for, all costs incurred by the Company in connection with the admission of the Substituted Member (including, without limitation, the legal fees incurred in connection with the legal opinions referred to in paragraph 13.03 of this Agreement) on or before the tenth (10th) day after the receipt by that person of the Company's invoice for the amount due. If payment is not made by the date due, the person owing the amount shall pay interest on the unpaid amount from the date due until paid at a rate per annum equal to the Default Interest Rate.

ARTICLE XIV BUYOUT OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST

14.01 Termination of Marital Relationship.

(a) If the marital relationship of a Member is terminated by death or divorce and such Member does not succeed to all of such Member's spouse's community or separate interest, if any, in Company Agreement Venus59, LLC the Membership Interest (such spouse is referred to hereafter in this Article as the "Assignee Spouse"), either as outright owner of such Membership Interest or as a trustee of a trust holding such Membership Interest, whether or not such Member is a beneficiary of such trust, then such Member shall have the option to purchase at Fair Value (determined as of the date of the death or divorce of the Member) the Assignee Spouse's interest in the Membership Interest to which such Member does not succeed. Such option must be exercised within ninety (90) days after the death of or the Member's divorce from the Assignee Spouse. Should the Member fail to exercise such option within such 90-day period, then the Company shall have the option to purchase such Membership Interest at Fair Value for a period of ninety (90) days after the lapse of the initial 90-day period.

- (b) Any Membership Interest of the Company held by a Member as a trustee of a trust as a result of the death of or the Member's divorce from the Assignee Spouse shall be treated as owned by such Member for purposes of this agreement. If such Member ceases to act as trustee of such trust for any reason, then such Member shall have the option to purchase all of the Membership Interest at Fair Value held in such trust. Such option must be exercised within ninety (90) days after such Member ceases to act as trustee of such trust. Should such Member fail to exercise such option within such 90-day period, then the Company shall have the option to purchase such Membership Interest for a period of ninety (90) days after the lapse of the initial 90-day period.
- 14.02 Death of Member. Commencing upon the death of a Member, the surviving Members shall for a period of ninety (90) days have the option to purchase all or any portion of the deceased Member's Membership Interest at Fair Value (determined as of the date of the death of the Member); provided, however, the exercise of said option shall require the approval of the unanimous consent of the Managers. Upon the expiration of ninety (90) days after the death of a Member, the Company shall be obligated to purchase all, and not less than all, of the deceased Member's Membership Interest at Fair Value which the surviving Members do not elect to purchase pursuant to the option granted in the preceding sentence. The Assignee (which may include spouse and executors or administrators of the deceased Member) shall sell all of the deceased Member's Membership Interest to the Company and/or the other Members in accordance with the option or obligation established by this paragraph.
- 14.03 Bankruptcy of Member. If any Member becomes a Bankrupt Member, the Company shall have the option, exercisable by notice from the Managers to the Bankrupt Member (or its representative) at any time prior to the one hundred eightieth (180th) day after receipt of notice of the occurrence of the event causing it to become a Bankrupt Member, to purchase all or any portion of the Bankrupt Member's Membership Interest at Fair Value (determined as of the date that notice of the exercise of such option is given by the Managers); provided, however, the exercise of said option shall require the approval of the unanimous consent of the Managers. In the event that notice of the exercise of such option is given by the Managers to the Bankrupt Member (or its representative), the Bankrupt Member shall sell its interest to the Company as provided by this Article.
- 14.04 Insufficient Surplus. If the Company shall not have sufficient surplus to permit it lawfully to purchase the Membership Interest under paragraph 14.01, 14.02 or 14.03 of this Agreement at the time of the closing, the other Members may take such action to vote their respective Membership Interests to reduce the capital of the Company or to take such other steps as may be appropriate or necessary in order to enable the Company lawfully to purchase such Membership Interest.
 - 14.05 Option by Other Members. If the Company fails or declines to exercise an option to purchase a Membership Interest of a Member as provided by this Agreement within the period of time specified for such option, then the other Members shall have the option for a period of ninety (90) days thereafter to purchase such Membership Interest in such proportions as they mutually agree or in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests for the same price and upon the same terms available to the Company.

- 14.06 Exercise of Option. Any option to purchase a Membership Interest as provided by this Agreement shall be deemed exercised at the time the purchasing party delivers to the selling party written notice of intent to exercise such option along with an initial payment in the form of a certified or cashier's check in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the estimated purchase price anticipated by the purchaser, in person or by United States registered mail, properly stamped and addressed to the last known address of the selling party.
- 14.07 Determination of Fair Value. The "Fair Value" of a Membership Interest shall be the amount that would be distributable to the Member holding such interest in the event that the assets of the Company were sold for cash and the proceeds, net of liabilities, were distributed to the holders of all Membership Interests pursuant to this Agreement. In the event that the Fair Value of a Membership Interest is to be determined under this Agreement, the Managers shall select a qualified independent appraiser to make such determination, and the Managers shall make the books and records available to the appraiser for such purpose. The determination of Fair Value made by such appraiser shall be final, conclusive, and binding on the Company, all Members, and all Assignees of a Membership Interest.
- 14.08 Fees and Expenses of Appraiser. In the case of a purchase and sale of Membership Interest under paragraph 14.01 or 14.02 of this Agreement (in the event of death or divorce of a Member), the fees and expenses of such appraiser shall be paid by the Company. In the case of a purchase and sale of Membership Interest under paragraph 14.03 or 15.01 (in the event of the bankruptcy or default of a Member), the fees and expenses of such appraiser shall be paid by the Bankrupt Member or Defaulting Member, by deducting at closing such fees and expenses from the purchase price to be paid to such Bankrupt Member or Defaulting Member, and remitting the same to the Company. Otherwise, the fees and expenses of such appraiser shall be shared equally by the purchaser and seller.
- 14.09 Right to Withdraw Option. In the event that a Member has exercised an election to purchase a Membership Interest under this Agreement and Fair Value has been determined as provided by paragraph 14.07 of this Agreement, such Member may elect to terminate its right to purchase within fifteen (15) days following its receipt of the determination of Fair Value, by delivery of written notice to the Company and to the Assignee. In such an event, the initial payment shall be returned to the Member withdrawing the option, and the other Members may elect to purchase the Membership Interest (or portion thereof) in such proportions as they mutually agree or in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests.

14.10 Terms of Purchase.

(a) The closing date for any sale and purchase made pursuant to this Article shall be the later of (i) thirty (30) days after the notice of the exercise of option has been received by the selling party, or (ii) thirty (30) days after the parties have received notice of the Fair Value of the Membership Interest.

- (b) Payment of the purchase price for a Membership Interest may be made by the Company and/or the other Members as follows: (i) a down payment equal to ten percent (10%) of the Fair Value to be made at closing, and (ii) the balance of the purchase price, bearing interest at the General Interest Rate determined on the date of closing, to be paid in twenty-four (24) equal monthly installments, with the first payment due thirty (30) days after the date of closing. Any such purchaser shall have the right to pay all or any part of such obligation at any time or times in advance of maturity without penalty. In the event that the Company becomes a party to a Fundamental Business Transaction, such obligation (or remaining portion thereof) shall be paid in full within thirty (30) days of the date that the Company becomes a party to such transaction.
- (c) At the closing, the person selling the Membership Interest will transfer the Membership Interest free and clear of any liens or encumbrances, other than those which may have been created to secure any indebtedness or obligations of the Company.
- (d) In each event that a Membership Interest in the Company is purchased as described in this Agreement, upon the execution and delivery of the notes or payment of the cash as required herein, this Agreement shall operate as an automatic transfer to the purchaser of the Membership Interest in the Company. The payment to be made to the selling Member, Assignee, or its representative shall constitute complete release, liquidation and satisfaction of all the rights and interest of the selling Member, Assignee, or its representative (and of all persons claiming by, through, or under the selling Member, Assignee, or its representative) in and in respect of the Company, including, without limitation, any Membership Interest, any rights in specific Company property, and any rights against the Company and (insofar as the affairs of the Company are concerned) against the Members. The parties shall perform such actions and execute such documents that may be reasonably necessary to effectuate and evidence such purchase and sale, and release as provided by this paragraph.

ARTICLE XV DEFAULT OF A MEMBER

- 15.01 Failure to Contribute. If a Member does not contribute by the time required all or any portion of a Capital Contribution that Member is required to make as provided in this Agreement, the Company may exercise, on notice to that Member (the "Defaulting Member"), one or more of the following remedies:
 - (a) taking such action (including, without limitation, court proceedings) as the Managers may deem appropriate to obtain payment by the Defaulting Member of the portion of the Defaulting Member's Capital Contribution that is in default, together with interest thereon at the Default Interest Rate from the date that the Capital Contribution was due until the date that it is made, all at the cost and expense of the Defaulting Member;
 - (b) permitting the other Members in proportion to their Percentage Interests or in such other percentages as they may agree (the "Lending Member," whether one or more), to advance the portion of the Defaulting Member's Capital Contribution that is in default, with the following results:
 - (i) the sum advanced constitutes a loan from the Lending Member to the Defaulting Member and a Capital Contribution of that sum to the Company by the

Defaulting Member pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Agreement,

- (ii) the principal balance of the loan and all accrued unpaid interest thereon is due and payable in whole on the tenth (10th) day after written demand therefor by the Lending Member to the Defaulting Member,
- (iii) the amount lent bears interest at the Default Interest Rate from the day that the advance is deemed made until the date that the loan, together with all interest accrued on it, is repaid to the Lending Member,
- (iv) all distributions from the Company that otherwise would be made to the Defaulting Member (whether before or after termination of the Company) instead shall be paid to the Lending Member until the loan and all interest accrued on it have been paid in full to the Lending Member (with payments being applied first to accrued and unpaid interest and then to principal),
- (v) the payment of the loan and interest accrued on it is secured by a security interest in the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest, as more fully set forth in paragraph 15.02 of this Agreement, and
- (vi) the Lending Member has the right, in addition to the other rights and remedies granted to it pursuant to this Agreement or available to it at law or in equity, to take any action (including, without limitation, court proceedings) that the Lending Member may deem appropriate to obtain payment by the Defaulting Member of the loan and all accrued and unpaid interest on it, at the cost and expense of the Defaulting Member;
- (c) exercising the rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of Texas;
- (d) reducing the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest or other interest in the Company;
- (e) subordination of the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest to the non-defaulting Member;
- (f) a forced sale of the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest at Fair Value and upon the terms of purchase as provided in Article XIV;
 - (g) forfeiture of the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest; or
 - (h) exercising any other rights and remedies available at law or in equity.
- 15.02 Security. Each Member grants to the Company, and to each Lending Member with respect to any loans made by the Lending Member to that Member as a Defaulting Member under this Article, as security, equally and ratably, for the payment of all Capital Contributions that Member has agreed to make and the payment of all loans and interest accrued on them made by Lending Members to that Member as a Defaulting Member pursuant to paragraph 15.01(b) of this Agreement, a security interest in, and a general lien on its Membership Interest and the proceeds thereof, all under the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of Texas. It is expressly agreed that the security interest created thereby shall be governed by Chapter 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of Texas. On any default in the payment of a Capital Contribution or in the payment of such a loan or interest accrued on it, the Company or the Lending Member, as applicable, is entitled to all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of Texas with respect to the security interest granted in this Article. Each Member shall execute and deliver to the Company and the other Members all financing statements and other instruments that the Managers or the Lending Member, as applicable, may request to effectuate and carry out the preceding provisions of this Article. At the option of the Managers or a Lending Member, this Agreement or a carbon, photographic, or other copy hereof may serve as a financing statement.

- 15.03 Compromise or Release. The obligation of a Defaulting Member or its legal representative or successor to make a contribution or otherwise pay cash or transfer property or to return cash or property paid or distributed to the Defaulting Member in violation of the TBOC or this Agreement may be compromised or released only with the approval of the unanimous consent of the Managers. Notwithstanding the compromise or release, a creditor of the Company who extends credit or otherwise acts in reasonable reliance on that obligation, after the Member signs a writing that reflects the obligation and before the writing is amended or canceled to reflect the compromise or release, may enforce the original obligation.
- 15.04 Expulsion. A Member may be expelled from the Company by unanimous vote of all other Members (not including the Member to be expelled) if that Member (a) has willfully violated any provision of this Agreement; (b) committed fraud, theft, or gross negligence against the Company or one or more Members of the Company, or (c) engaged in wrongful conduct that adversely and materially affects the business or operation of the Company. Such a Member shall be considered a Defaulting Member, and the Company or other Members may also exercise any one or more of the remedies provided for in Article 15.01. The Company may offset any damages to the Company or its Members occasioned by the misconduct of the expelled Member against any amounts distributable or otherwise payable by the Company to the expelled Member.

ARTICLE XVI WINDING UP AND TERMINATION

- 16.01 Event Requiring Termination. The Company shall begin to wind up its affairs upon the first of the following to occur:
 - (a) the execution of an instrument approving the termination of the Company by a Simple Majority of the Members;
 - (b) the occurrence of any event that terminates the continued membership of the last remaining Member of the Company; provided, however, that the Company is not dissolved if, no later than ninety (90) days after the termination of the membership of the last remaining Member, the legal representative or successor of the last remaining Member agrees to cancel the event requiring winding up, to continue the Company and to become a Member, or to designate another person who agrees to become a Member, as of the date of termination of the membership of the last remaining Member;
 - (c) entry of a decree of judicial dissolution of the Company;

- (d) the occurrence of a non-waivable event under the terms of the TBOC which requires the Company to be terminated; or
- (e) by the act of a Simple Majority of the Members, if no capital has been paid into the Company, and the Company has not otherwise commenced business.
- 16.02 Business May Be Continued. Except as provided in paragraph 16.01(b) of this Agreement:
 - (a) an event that requires the winding up of the Company's business shall not terminate the Company if, no later than one year after the date of the event, the Members unanimously consent to cancel the event requiring winding up.
 - (b) the expiration of a period of duration that requires the winding up of the Company's business shall not terminate the Company if, no later than three years after the date the period of duration expires, the Members unanimously consent to amend the Company's Certificate of Formation and this Agreement to extend the Company's period of duration.
- 16.03 Purchase of Former Member's Membership Interest. Upon an event requiring winding up as provided in 16.01 of this Agreement, the Company's books shall be closed upon the date of such event, so as to determine the Former Member's Membership Interest value on the date ending all of the Former Member's financial interest in the Company. Within one hundred eighty (180) days of such event, the Company shall purchase the Former Member's Membership Interest at Fair Value (as determined by paragraph 14.07 of this Agreement), upon terms of purchase as provided in Article XIV of this Agreement.
- 16.04 Liquidation. As soon as possible following an event requiring termination of the Company, the Managers shall act as liquidator or may appoint one or more Managers or Members as liquidator. The liquidator shall proceed diligently to wind up the affairs of the Company and make final distributions as provided herein and in the TBOC. The costs of liquidation shall be borne as a Company expense. Until final distribution, the liquidator shall continue to operate the Company properties with all of the power and authority of the Managers. The steps to be accomplished by the liquidator are as follows:
- (a) as promptly as possible after such event and again after final liquidation, the liquidator shall cause a proper accounting to be made by a recognized firm of certified public accountants of the Company's assets, liabilities, and operations through the last day of the calendar month in which the termination occurs or the final liquidation is completed, as applicable;
- (b) the liquidator shall cause the notice described in Section 11.052 of the TBOC to be delivered to each known claimant against the Company;
- (c) the liquidator shall pay, satisfy or discharge from Company funds all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company (including, without limitation, all expenses incurred in liquidation and any advances described in paragraph 4.04 of this Agreement) or otherwise make adequate provision for payment and discharge thereof (including, without limitation, the establishment of a cash escrow fund for contingent liabilities in such amount and for such term as the liquidator may reasonably determine); and

- (d) all remaining assets of the Company shall be distributed to the Members as follows:
 - (i) the liquidator may sell any or all Company property, including to Members, and any resulting gain or loss from each sale shall be computed and allocated to the Capital Accounts of the Members;
 - (ii) with respect to all Company property that has not been sold, the fair market value of that property shall be determined and the Capital Accounts of the Members shall be adjusted to reflect the manner in which the unrealized income, gain, loss, and deduction inherent in property that has not been reflected in the Capital Accounts previously would be allocated among the Members if there were a taxable disposition of that property for the fair market value of that property on the date of distribution; and
 - (iii) Company property shall be distributed among the Members in accordance with the positive Capital Account balances of the Members, as determined after taking into account all Capital Account adjustments for the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the company occurs (other than those made by reason of this clause (iii)); and those distributions shall be made by the end of the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the Company occurs (or, if later, ninety (90) days after the date of liquidation).

All distributions in kind to the Members shall be made subject to the liability of each distributee for costs, expenses, and liabilities theretofore incurred or for which the Company has committed prior to the date of termination and those costs, expenses, and liabilities shall be allocated to the distributee pursuant to this paragraph. Upon completion of all distributions to the Member, such distribution shall constitute a complete return to the Member of its Capital Contributions and release all claims against the Company. To the extent that a Member returns funds to the Company, it has no claim against any other Member for those funds.

- 16.05 Deficit Capital Accounts. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, and notwithstanding any custom or rule of law to the contrary, to the extent that the deficit, if any, in the Capital Account of any Member results from or is attributable to deductions and losses of the Company (including non-cash items such as depreciation), or distributions of money pursuant to this Agreement to all Members in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests, upon termination of the Company such deficit shall not be an asset of the Company and such Members shall not be obligated to contribute such amount to the Company to bring the balance of such Member's Capital Account to zero.
- 16.06 Certificate of Termination. On completion of the distribution of Company assets as provided herein, the Company is terminated, and the Managers (or such other person or persons as the TBOC may require or permit) shall execute, acknowledge and cause to be filed a Certificate of Termination, at which time the Company shall cease to exist as a limited liability company.

ARTICLE XVII

17.02 Special Provisions for Certain Amendments or Modifications.

- (a) An amendment or modification reducing a Member's Percentage Interest or increasing its Capital Commitment (other than to reflect changes otherwise provided by this Agreement) is effective only with that Member's consent.
- (b) An amendment or modification reducing the required Percentage Interest or other measure for any consent or vote in this Agreement is effective only with the consent or vote of Members having the Percentage Interest or other measure theretofore required.
- (c) An amendment to establish the relative rights and preferences of the Membership Interests of any class or series may be made by a committee of Managers, within the authority of Managers or otherwise provided in the Certificate of Formation, the TBOC, or resolutions by Members forming the committee.
- (d) An amendment or modification made solely to reflect the admission or withdrawal of a Member (such as to Exhibit A) need not be approved by any Member if the requirements set forth in this Agreement with respect to the admission or withdrawal of the Member are otherwise satisfied.

ARTICLE XVIII GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 18.01 Construction. Whenever the context requires, the gender of all words used in this Agreement includes the masculine, feminine, and neuter. In the event there is only one Member, then references to Members in the plural should be construed as singular; likewise, in the event there is only one Manager, then references to Members in the plural should also be construed as singular.
- 18.02 Offset. Whenever the Company is to pay any sum to any Member, any amounts that Member owes the Company may be deducted from that sum before payment.
- 18.03 Notices. Except as expressly set forth to the contrary in this Agreement, all notices, requests, or consents provided for or permitted to be given under this Agreement must be in writing and must be given either by depositing that writing in the United States mail, addressed to the recipient, postage paid, and registered or certified with return receipt requested or by delivering that writing to the recipient in person, by courier, or by facsimile transmission; and a notice, request, or consent given under this Agreement is effective on receipt by the person. All notices, requests, and consents to be sent to a Member must be sent to or made at the addresses given for that Member on Exhibit A or such other address as that Member may specify by notice to the other Members. Any notice, request, or consent to the Company or the Managers must be given to the Managers at the following address:

- 18.04 Entire Agreement; Supersedes Other Agreements. This Agreement includes the entire agreement of the Members and their Affiliates relating to the Company and supersedes all prior contracts or agreements with respect to the Company, whether oral or written.
- 18.05 Effect of Waiver or Consent. A waiver or consent, express or implied, to or of any breach or default by any person in the performance by that person of its obligations with respect to the Company is not a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance by that person of the same or any other obligations of that person with respect to the Company. Failure on the part of a person to complain of any act of any person or to declare any person in default with respect to the Company, irrespective of how long that failure continues, does not constitute a waiver by that person of its rights with respect to that default until the applicable statute-of-limitations period has run.
- 18.06 Binding Effect. Subject to the restrictions on Transfers set forth in this Agreement, this Agreement is binding on and inure to the benefit of the Members and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns. - 18.07 Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT IS GOVERNED BY AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, EXCLUDING ANY CONFLICT-OF-LAWS RULE OR PRINCIPLE THAT MIGHT REFER THE GOVERNANCE OR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT TO THE LAW OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.
- 18.08 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement and the application of that provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected thereby and that provision shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.
- 18.09 Further Assurances. In connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, each Member shall execute and deliver any additional documents and instruments and perform any additional acts that may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and perform the provisions of this Agreement and those transactions.
- 18.10 Waiver of Certain Rights. Each Member irrevocably waives any right it may have to maintain any action for dissolution of the Company or for partition of the property of the Company.
- 18.11 Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by law, each Member shall indemnify the Company, each Manager and each other Member and hold them harmless from and against all

Company Agreement Venus59, LLC losses, costs, liabilities, damages, and expenses (including, without limitation, costs of suit and attorney's fees) they may incur on account of any breach by that Member of this Agreement.

Texas Franchise Taxpayers: Your Annual Report Is Due

Your annual franchise tax report is due on the date shown in the box in the upper right corner of this letter. Even if you have no tax due or no activity to report, Texas tax law requires that you file a franchise tax report and information report each year.

Choose a Reporting Option

There are three reporting options: No Tax Due Report, E-Z Computation Report and the Long Form report. You will need to choose the best report for your situation.

Taxable entities that are part of a combined group engaged in a unitary business must file a combined group report. A passive entity or a new veteran-owned business cannot be included in a combined group report.

You can file a No Tax Due Report if your business:

- is an entity or a combined group with annualized total revenue less than or equal to the no tax due threshold;
- · has zero Texas receipts; or
- meets the statutory requirements for a passive entity, a real estate investment trust or a new veteran-owned business.

You must file an original No Tax Due Report electronically. You can file free through the Comptroller's Webfile system at www.comptroller.texas.gov/taxes/file-pay/.

You can file an E-Z Computation Report if your business is an entity or a combined group with annualized total revenue of $20 million or less.

If you choose this option, your business cannot:

- take any margin deductions (including cost of goods sold or compensation),
- · take any franchise tax credits, or
- carry over that report year's temporary credit for business loss carryforward to a future period.

You must file a Long Form report if you:

- are not eligible to file either the No Tax Due Report or the E-Z Computation Report, or
- · will take franchise tax credits.

Request an Extension

A $50 penalty is due on a report filed after the due date, even if no tax is due. If you need more time to file, request an extension by the due date to avoid the penalty. A combined group must include the Texas Franchise Tax Affiliate List with its first extension request.

Save Time and File Online!

With the Comptroller's secure online system, Webfile (www.comptroller.texas.gov/taxes/file-pay/), you can file a franchise tax report, pay tax due or request an extension. First-time users will need the Webfile number in the box in the upper right corner of this letter to get started. (Note: Your tax preparer may need your Webfile number to file your report electronically.)

Notice of special meetings may be given by facsimile or electronic message (e-mail).
- 6.010 Approval or Ratification of Acts or Contracts by Members. The Managers in their discretion may submit any act or contract for approval or ratification at any annual meeting of the Members, or at any special meeting of the Members called for the purpose of considering any such act or contract. Any act or contract that shall be approved or be ratified by a majority of the Managers shall be as valid and as binding upon the Company and upon all the Members as if it shall have been approved or ratified by every Member of the Company.
- 6.11 Action Without Meeting. Any action permitted or required by the TBOC, the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement to be taken at a meeting of the Managers or any committee designated by the Managers may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, is signed by all the Managers or members of such committee, as the case may be. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each Manager who signs the consent, and the consent may be in one or more counterparts. An email, telegram, telex, cablegram or similar transmission by a Manager, or a photographic, photostatic, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing signed by a Manager, shall be regarded as signed by the Manager for purposes of this paragraph. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting and may be stated as such in any document or instrument filed with the Secretary of State of Texas, and the execution of such consent shall constitute attendance or presence in person at a meeting of the Managers or any such committee, as the case may be. The signed consent or a signed copy of the consent shall be kept on file at the principal office of the Company.

- 6.12 Action by Telephone Conference or Other Remote Communications Technology. Subject to the requirements of the TBOC, the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement for notice of meetings, unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Formation, Managers, or members of any committee designated by the Managers, may participate in and hold a meeting of the Managers or any committee of Managers, as the case may be, by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Or, another suitable electronic communications system may be used including video-conferencing technology or the Internet, but only if each Manager entitled to participate in the meeting consents to the meeting being held by means of that system and the system provides access to the meeting in a manner or using a method by which each Manager participating in the meeting can communicate concurrently with each other participant. Participation in such meeting shall constitute attendance and presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
- 6.13 Broad Discretion and Authority of Managers. Each Member acknowledges and understands that the Managers are granted broad discretion and authority under this Agreement and that the Managers' exercise of such broad discretion and authority may impair the value of the Membership Interest of the Member. Such Member further acknowledges and understands that the Managers would not cause the Company to issue a Membership Interest to the Member if the Managers did not have such broad discretion and authority, and such Member agrees not to challenge the Manager's exercise of such discretion and authority.
- 6.14 Sale of Paper Lots. Unless otherwise consented to by all Members including where the Members have agreed to perform Horizontal Construction, the Manager shall cause the sale and closing of the Paper Lots at fair market value on an arms-length transaction basis subject to commercial reasonable terms to a third party that is not related to any Member ("Sale Parameters") and shall ensure that at least fifty (50%) of the Paper Lots or total acreage of the Property is sold on or before the expiration of two (2) years following the closing of all Property ("Sales Objective"). Regardless of any conflict in this Agreement, in the event that Manager fails to achieve the Sales Objective, the Manager may be removed and replaced by a Majority of the Members following thirty (30) days' written notice during which period the Manager fails to cure and meet the Sales Objective. So long as Manager enters into a purchase contract on behalf of the Company and closes on the sale of Paper Lots in accordance with the Sale Parameters, then the Members shall not unreasonably withhold or delay any required consent to the sale and otherwise, such consent shall be deemed given.

ARTICLE VII CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

7.01 Confidential Information. The Members agree that the Managers from time to time may determine, due to contractual obligations, business concerns, or other considerations, that certain information regarding the business, affairs, properties, and financial condition of the Company should be kept confidential and not provided to some or all other Members, and that it is not just or reasonable for those Members or assignees or representatives thereof to examine or copy that information. The Members acknowledge that, from time to time, they may receive information from or regarding the Company in the nature of trade secrets or that otherwise is confidential, the release of which may be damaging to the Company or persons with which it does business. Each Member shall hold in strict confidence any information it receives regarding the Company that is identified as being confidential (and if that information is provided in writing, that is so marked) and may not disclose it to any person other than another Member or a Manager, except for disclosures (i) compelled by law (but the Member must notify the Managers promptly of any request for that information, before disclosing it, if practicable), (ii) to advisers or representatives of the Member or persons to which that Member's Membership Interest may be transferred as permitted by this Agreement, but only if the recipients have agreed to be bound by the provisions of this paragraph, or (iii) of information that Member also has received from a source independent of the Company that the Member reasonably believes obtained that information without breach of any obligation of confidentiality.

7.02. Specific Performance. The Members acknowledge that breach of the provisions of paragraph 7.01 of this Agreement may cause irreparable injury to the Company for which monetary damages are inadequate, difficult to compute, or both. Accordingly, the Members agree that the provisions of paragraph 7.01 of this Agreement may be enforced by specific performance.

ARTICLE VIII MEETING OF MEMBERS

8.01 Meetings.

- (a) A quorum shall be present at a meeting of Members if the holders of 100% of the Membership Interests are represented at the meeting in person or by proxy. With respect to any matter, other than a matter for which the affirmative vote of the holders of a specified portion of the Percentage Interests of all Members entitled to vote is required by the TBOC or this Agreement, the affirmative vote of a Simple Majority at a meeting of Members at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Members, except as provided by another specific provision in this Agreement.
- (b) All meetings of the Members shall be held at the principal place of business of the Company or at such other place within or outside the State of Texas as shall be specified or fixed in the notices or waivers of notice thereof; provided that any or all Members may participate in any such meetings by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment pursuant to paragraph 8.06 of this Agreement.
- (c) Notwithstanding the other provisions of the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement, the chairman of the meeting or the holders of a Super Majority shall have the power to adjourn such meeting from time to time, without any notice other than announcement at the meeting of the time and place of the holding of the adjourned meeting. If such meeting is adjourned by the Members, such time and place shall be determined by a vote of the holders of a Super Majority. Upon the resumption of such adjourned meeting, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.
- (d) An annual meeting of the Members, for the election of the Managers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, shall be held at such place, within or outside the State of Texas, on such date and at such time as the Managers shall fix and set forth in the notice of the meeting, which date shall be within thirteen (13) months subsequent to the date of organization of the Company or the last annual meeting of Members, whichever most recently occurred.

- (e) Special meetings of the Members for any proper purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Managers or the holders of at least ten percent of the Percentage Interests of all Members. If not otherwise stated in or fixed in accordance with the remaining provisions hereof, the record date for determining Members entitled to call a special meeting is the date any Member first signs the notice of that meeting. Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the notice (or waiver thereof) required by this Agreement may be conducted at a special meeting of the Members.
- (f) Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the Managers or person calling the meeting, to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, any such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the Member at his address on the voting list provided for in paragraph 8.02 of this Agreement, with postage thereon prepaid.
- (g) The date on which notice of a meeting of Members is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Managers declaring a distribution is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for the determination of the Members entitled to notice of or to vote at such meeting, including any adjournment thereof, or the Members entitled to receive such distribution.
- (h) Notice of meetings may be given to Members by facsimile or electronic message (e-mail).

8.02 Intentionally Omitted.

8.03 Proxies. A Member may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the Member. A telegram, telex, cablegram or similar transmission by the Member, or a photographic, photostatic, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing executed by the Member shall be treated as an execution in writing for purposes of this paragraph. Proxies for use at any meeting of Members or in connection with the taking of any action by written consent shall be filed with the Managers, before or at the time of the meeting or execution of the written consent, as the case may be. All proxies shall be received and taken charge of and all ballots shall be received and canvassed by the Managers, who shall decide all questions touching upon the qualification of voters, the validity of the proxies, and the acceptance or rejection of votes, unless an inspector or inspectors shall have been appointed by the chairman of the meeting, in which event such inspector or inspectors shall decide all such questions. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A proxy shall be revocable unless the proxy form conspicuously states that the proxy is irrevocable and the proxy is coupled with an interest. Should a proxy designate two or more persons to act as proxies, unless that instrument shall provide to the contrary, a majority of such persons present at any meeting at which their powers thereunder are to be exercised shall have and may exercise all the powers of voting or giving consents thereby conferred, or if only one be present, then such powers may be exercised by that one; or, if an even number attend and a majority do not agree on any particular issue, the Company shall not be required to recognize such proxy with respect to such issue if such proxy does not specify how the Percentage Interests that are the subject of such proxy are to be voted with respect to such issue.

8.04 Conduct of Meetings. All meetings of the Members shall be presided over by the chairman of the meeting, who shall be a Manager (or representative thereof) designated by a majority of the Managers. The chairman of any meeting of Members shall determine the order of business and the procedure at the meeting, including the regulation of the manner of voting and the conduct of discussion.

8.05 Action by Unanimous Written Consent Without Meeting.

- (a) Any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, by unanimous written consent of all Members or committee members, as the case may be, setting forth the action so taken which may be evidenced by the delivery of an email, fax, or similar transmission or electronic consent delivered by a Member, or any copy, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing signed by a Member or other written consent delivered to and received by the Manager. Each written consent shall bear the date of signature of each Member who signs the consent, and the consent may be in one or more counterparts. The signed consent or a signed copy of the consent shall be kept on file at the principal office of the Company.
- (b) The record date for determining Members entitled to consent to action in writing without a meeting shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the Company by delivery to its registered office, its principal place of business, or the Managers including by electronic transmission.
- (c) If any action by Members is taken by written consent, any articles or documents filed with the Secretary of State of Texas as a result of the taking of the action shall state, in lieu of any statement required by the TBOC concerning any vote of Members, that written consent has been given in accordance with the provisions of the TBOC and that any written notice required by the TBOC has been given.
- 8.06 Action by Telephone Conference or Other Remote Communications Technology. Members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Or, another suitable electronic communications system may be used including video-conferencing technology or the Internet, but only if each member entitled to participate in the meeting consents to the meeting being held by means of that system and the system provides access to the meeting in a manner or using a method by which each member participating in the meeting can communicate concurrently with each other participant. Participation in such meeting shall constitute attendance and presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
- 8.07 Classes of Members; Voting. At an annual or special meeting called for that purpose, the Members may from time to time establish classes or groups of Members. One or more of the Members' groups or classes may have certain expressed relative rights, powers, and duties, including voting rights, to be established at the time when the classes or groups are created, with seniority granted to one or more class or group as designated by the Members.

ARTICLE IX OFFICERS

- 9.01 Qualification. The Managers may, from time to time, designate one or more persons to be officers of the Company upon the Unanimous Consent of the Members. No officer need be a resident of the State of Texas, a Member or a Manager. Any officers so designated shall have such authority and perform such duties as the Managers may, from time to time, delegate to them. The Managers may assign titles to particular officers. Unless the Managers decide otherwise, if the title is one commonly used for officers of a business corporation, the assignment of such title shall constitute the delegation to such officer of the authority and duties that are normally associated with that office, subject to any specific delegation of authority and duties made to such officer by the Managers pursuant to this paragraph. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall be duly designated and qualify for such office, until his death, or until he shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company (other than Manager) may be filled by the Managers. Any number of offices may be held by the one person.
- 9.02. Compensation. The salaries or other compensation, if any, of the officers and agents of the Company shall be fixed from time to time by the Managers. However, election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself, nor shall anything in this Agreement, create contract rights.
- 9.03. Resignation. Any officer may resign as such at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the Managers. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation.
- 9.04. Removal. Any officer may be removed for any material breach of this Agreement which is not cured following thirty (30) days written notice from any Member, Manager, or Officer or for Good Cause (as defined in section 15.04) by a Majority of the Members provided, however, that such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed.
- 9.05 Appointment of Officers. The initial President, Treasurer, Secretary and any other Officers, if any, are designated on Exhibit B who shall serve the Company without compensation. The President shall have the same rights, powers, and authorities as that of the Manager on a non-exclusive basis and may delegate any such rights, powers, or authorities to any other officer or an authorized representative of the Company as appointed by the President. The Secretary and Treasurer shall have those rights, powers, and authorities which are standard for such positions. Both the President and Treasurer shall have the power to open, manage, and close any accounts including with any financial institution on behalf of the Company and each shall be a signatory on such accounts without the need for any further consent.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION

10.01 Right to Indemnification. Subject to the limitations and conditions as provided in this Article, each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any Proceeding, or any appeal in such a Proceeding, or any inquiry or investigation that could lead to such a Proceeding, by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a Member or Manager of the Company or while a Member or Manager of the Company is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise shall be indemnified by the Company to the fullest extent permitted by the TBOC, as the same exist or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Company to provide prior to such amendment) against judgments, penalties (including excise and similar taxes and punitive damages), fines, settlements and reasonable expenses (including, without limitation, attorney's fees) actually incurred by such person in connection with such Proceeding, and indemnification under this Article shall continue as to a person who has ceased to serve in the capacity which initially entitled such person to indemnity hereunder. The rights granted pursuant to this Article shall be deemed contract rights, and no amendments, modification or repeal of this Article shall have the effect of limiting or denying any such rights with respect to actions taken or Proceeding arising prior to any such amendment, modification or repeal. It is expressly acknowledged that the indemnification provided in this Article could involve indemnification for negligence or under theories of strict liability.

10.02 Advance Payment. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall include the right to be paid or reimbursed by the Company the reasonable expenses incurred by a person of the type entitled to be indemnified under paragraph 10.01 of this Agreement who was, is or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a Proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding and without any determination as to the person's ultimate entitlement to indemnification; provided, however, that the payment of such expenses incurred by any such person in advance of the final disposition of a Proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the Company of a written affirmation by such person of his or her good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under this Article and a written undertaking, by or on behalf of such person, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such indemnified person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article or otherwise.

10.03 Indemnification of Officers, Employees and Agents. The Company, by adoption of a resolution of the Managers, may indemnify and advance or reimburse expenses to an officer, employee or agent of the Company to the same extent and subject to the same conditions under which it may indemnify and advance expenses to Managers under this Article; and, the Company may indemnify and advance or reimburse expenses to persons who are not or were not Managers, officers, employees, or agents of the Company but who are or were serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in such a capacity or arising out of his status as such a person to the same extent that it may indemnify and advance expenses to Managers under this Article.

10.04 Appearance as a Witness. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, the Company may pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a Member or Manager in connection with his appearance as a witness or other participation in a Proceeding at a time when he is not a named defendant or respondent in the Proceeding.

10.05 Non-exclusivity of Rights. The right to indemnification and the advancement and payment of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which a Member or Manager or other person indemnified pursuant to paragraph 10.03 of this Agreement may have or hereafter acquire under any law (common or statutory), provision of the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement, agreement, vote of disinterested Managers or otherwise.

- 10.06 Insurance. The Company may purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any person who is a Member or was serving as a Manager, officer, employee or agent of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under this Article.
- 10.07 Member Notification. To the extent required by law, any indemnification of or advance of expenses to a Member or Manager in accordance with this Article shall be reported in writing to the Members with or before the notice or waiver of notice of the next Members' meeting or with or before the next submission to Members of a consent to action without a meeting and, in any case, within the twelve month period immediately following the date of the indemnification or advance.
- 10.08 Savings Clause. If this Article or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Company shall nevertheless indemnify and hold harmless each Member or Manager or any other person indemnified pursuant to this Article as to costs, charges, and expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement with respect to any action, suit or Proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative to the full extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Article that shall not have been invalidated and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

ARTICLE XI TAXES

- 11.01 Tax Returns. The Managers shall cause to be prepared and filed all necessary federal and state income tax returns for the Company, including making the elections described in paragraph 11.02 of this Agreement. Each Member shall furnish to the Managers all pertinent information in its possession relating to Company operations that is necessary to enable the Company's income tax returns to be prepared and filed.
- 11.02 Tax Elections. The Company shall make the following elections on the appropriate tax returns:
 - (a) to adopt the calendar year as the Company's fiscal year;
 - (b) to adopt the cash method of accounting for keeping the Company's books and records;
 - (c) if a distribution of Company property as described in Section 734 of the Internal Revenue Code occurs or if a transfer of a Membership Interest as described in Section 743 of the Internal Revenue Code occurs, on written request of any Member, to elect, pursuant to Section 754 of the Internal Revenue Code, to adjust the basis of Company properties;

- (d) to elect to amortize the organizational expenses of the Company and the startup expenditures of the Company under Section 195 of the Internal Revenue Code ratably over a period of sixty (60) months as permitted by Section 709(b) of the Internal Revenue Code; and
- (e) any other election the Managers may deem appropriate and in the best interest of the Members.

Either the Company or any Manager or Member may make an election for the Company to be excluded from the application of the provisions of subchapter K of chapter 1 subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code or any similar provisions of applicable state law.

- 11.03 "Tax Matters Partner." A majority of the Managers shall designate one Manager that is a Member to be the "tax matters partner" of the Company pursuant to Section 6231(a)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code; or, if there is no Manager that is a Member, the "tax matters partner" shall be a Member that is designated as such by a Simple Majority. Any Member who is designated "tax matters partner" shall take such action as may be necessary to cause each other Member to become a "notice partner" within the meaning of Section 6223 of the Internal Revenue Code. Any Member who is designated "tax matters partner" shall inform each other Member of all significant matters that may come to its attention in its capacity as "tax matters partner" by giving notice thereof on or before the fifth Business Day after becoming aware thereof and, within that time, shall forward to each other Member copies of all significant written communications it may receive in that capacity. Any Member who is designated "tax matters partner" may not take action contemplated by Section 6222 through 6232 of the Internal Revenue Code without the Unanimous Consent of the Members, but this sentence does not authorize such Manager (or any other Manager) to take any action left to the determination of an individual Member under Sections 6222 through 6232 of the Internal Revenue Code.
- 11.04 Employment Identification Number. A separate individual as authorized by the Company may have originally obtained an Employment Identification Number ("EIN") from the IRS on behalf of the Company which designated such person as a member or sole member of the Company on its letter issuing the EIN as a result of the limitations of the IRS's online EIN request process but such designation by the IRS is not determinative of such person's capacity or ownership interests in the Company and as such as of the Effective Date, such person has no rights or interests in the Company except to the extent specifically stated in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XII BOOKS, RECORDS, REPORTS, AND BANK ACCOUNTS

12.01 Maintenance of Books. The Company shall keep books and records of accounts and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its Members, its Managers and each committee of the Managers. The books of account for the Company shall be maintained on a cash basis in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, except that the Capital Accounts of the Members shall be maintained in accordance with Article IV of this Agreement. The calendar year shall be the accounting year of the Company. The Members shall have full access to the Company's books of account, and any other financial or other records of the Company, upon reasonable advance notice.

12.02 Accounts. The Managers shall establish and maintain one or more separate bank and investment accounts and arrangements for Company funds in the Company name with financial institutions and firms that the Managers determine. The Managers may not commingle the Company's funds with the funds of any Member; however, Company funds may be invested in a manner the same as or similar to the Managers' investment of their own funds or investments by their Affiliates.

ARTICLE XIII TRANSFERS

13.01 Limited Right to Transfer. No Member or Assignee shall make any Transfer of all or any part of its Membership Interest, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, except (a) with the Unanimous Consent of the Members; (b) as provided by Article XIV of this Agreement; (c) as a Defaulting Member as provided by paragraph 15.01(f) of this Agreement; or (d) upon winding up or termination, as provided by paragraph 16.03 of this Agreement. Any attempted Transfer by a person of an interest or right, or any part thereof, in or in respect of the Company other than as specifically provided by this Agreement shall be, and is hereby declared, null and void ab initio.

13.02 Rights of an Assignee.

- (a) Unless and until an Assignee becomes a Substituted Member of the Company as provided in this Agreement, the Assignee shall be entitled only to (i) allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit, or similar items, and to receive distributions to which the assignor is entitled to the extent these items were assigned, and (ii) reasonable information or account of transactions of the Company and to make reasonable inspection of the books and records of the Company. The Membership Interest of the Assignee shall not be considered in the voting requirements of the Company, and the Assignee shall have no right to participate in the operations or management of the Company.
- (b) In the event that the Members make additional contributions to the Company which the Membership Interest is held by an Assignee, the Assignor Member and its Assignee shall be jointly and severally liable for the corresponding contribution in connection with the Membership Interest held by Assignee. If the Assignor Member or Assignee does not make such contribution in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, then the Assignor Member and Assignee shall be treated as being in Default. In the event that one or more new Members are admitted into the Company, or one or more existing Members increase their Membership Interest, the Membership Interest of the Assignee may be correspondingly reduced and no consent or other action on the part of such Assignee shall be required.
- 13.03 Legal Opinion. For the right of a Member to transfer a Membership Interest or any part thereof or of any Person to be admitted to the Company in connection therewith to exist or be exercised, the Company must receive an opinion from legal counsel acceptable to the Managers that states (a) the Transfer is exempt from registration under federal and state securities laws, (b) the Transfer will not cause the Company to be in violation of federal and state securities laws, (c) the Transfer will not adversely affect the status of the Company as a partnership under the Internal Revenue Code or Treasury Regulations, and (d) the Transfer will not result in the Company's being considered to have terminated within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code or Treasury Regulations. The Managers, however, may waive the requirements of this paragraph.

- 13.04 Admission as Substituted Member. An Assignee has the right to be admitted to the Company as a Substituted Member with the Percentage Interest and the Capital Commitment so transferred to such person, in the event that:
 - (a) the Member making such Transfer grants the Assignee the right to be so admitted;
 - (b) such Transfer is consented to in accordance with paragraph 13.01 of this Agreement; and
 - (c) a written, signed and dated instrument evidencing the Transfer has been filed with the Company in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Managers, and said instrument contains (i) the agreement by the Assignee to be bound by all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, (ii) any necessary or advisable representations and warranties, including that the Transfer was made in accordance with all applicable laws, regulations, and securities laws, (iii) the Percentage Interests and the Capital Commitments after the Transfer of the Member effecting the Transfer and the person to which the Membership Interest of part thereof is transferred (which together must total the Percentage Interest and the Capital Commitment of the Member effecting the Transfer before the Transfer) and (iv) the name, address and any other pertinent information necessary for amended Exhibit A and to make distributions.
- 13.05 Transfer to Existing Member. In the event of a Transfer to an existing Member, the existing Member shall be automatically deemed to be a Substituted Member.
- 13.06 Third Party Offer. In the event a Member desires to sell all or any portion of its Membership Interest to another person (other than an existing Member), the selling Member shall first offer to sell the Membership Interest to the other existing Members. Upon the receipt of an offer from a Third Party to purchase such Membership Interest, the selling Member shall promptly deliver a copy of the Third Party offer to all other Members. Each Member will have fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of the Third Party offer to notify the selling Member in writing that the other Member intends to purchase the Membership Interest upon the terms and conditions of the Third Party offer. If more than one other Member desires to purchase the Membership Interest, each of the purchasing Members shall purchase a portion of the Membership Interest that is proportional to that Member's Percentage Interest. If none of the other Members give notification within fifteen (15) days of an intention to purchase the Membership Interest, then the selling Member shall be permitted to sell the Membership Interest to the Third Party upon the terms and conditions of the Third Party offer.
- 13.07 Reasonable Expenses. The Member effecting a Transfer and the Substituted Member shall pay, or reimburse the Company for, all costs incurred by the Company in connection with the admission of the Substituted Member (including, without limitation, the legal fees incurred in connection with the legal opinions referred to in paragraph 13.03 of this Agreement) on or before the tenth (10th) day after the receipt by that person of the Company's invoice for the amount due. If payment is not made by the date due, the person owing the amount shall pay interest on the unpaid amount from the date due until paid at a rate per annum equal to the Default Interest Rate.

ARTICLE XIV

BUYOUT OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST

14.01 Termination of Marital Relationship.

(a) If the marital relationship of a Member is terminated by death or divorce and such Member does not succeed to all of such Member's spouse's community or separate interest, if any, in the Membership Interest (such spouse is referred to hereafter in this Article as the "Assignee Spouse"), either as outright owner of such Membership Interest or as a trustee of a trust holding such Membership Interest, whether or not such Member is a beneficiary of such trust, then such Member shall have the option to purchase at Fair Value (determined as of the date of the death or divorce of the Member) the Assignee Spouse's interest in the Membership Interest to which such Member does not succeed. Such option must be exercised within ninety (90) days after the death of or the Member's divorce from the Assignee Spouse. Should the Member fail to exercise such option within such 90-day period, then the Company shall have the option to purchase such Membership Interest at Fair Value for a period of ninety (90) days after the lapse of the initial 90-day period.

(b) Any Membership Interest of the Company held by a Member as a trustee of a trust as a result of the death of or the Member's divorce from the Assignee Spouse shall be treated as owned by such Member for purposes of this agreement. If such Member ceases to act as trustee of such trust for any reason, then such Member shall have the option to purchase all of the Membership Interest at Fair Value held in such trust. Such option must be exercised within ninety (90) days after such Member ceases to act as trustee of such trust. Should such Member fail to exercise such option within such 90-day period, then the Company shall have the option to purchase such Membership Interest for a period of ninety (90) days after the lapse of the initial 90-day period.

14.02 Intentionally Omitted.

14.03 Bankruptcy of Member. If any Member becomes a Bankrupt Member, the Company shall have the option, exercisable by notice from the Managers to the Bankrupt Member (or its representative) at any time prior to the one hundred eightieth (180th) day after receipt of notice of the occurrence of the event causing it to become a Bankrupt Member, to purchase all or any portion of the Bankrupt Member's Membership Interest at Fair Value (determined as of the date that notice of the exercise of such option is given by the Managers); provided, however, the exercise of said option shall require the approval of the unanimous consent of the Managers. In the event that notice of the exercise of such option is given by the Managers to the Bankrupt Member (or its representative), the Bankrupt Member shall sell its interest to the Company as provided by this Article.

14.04 Insufficient Surplus. If the Company shall not have sufficient surplus to permit it lawfully to purchase the Membership Interest under paragraph 14.01 or 14.02 of this Agreement at the time of the closing, the other Members may take such action to vote their respective Membership Interests to reduce the capital of the Company or to take such other steps as may be appropriate or necessary in order to enable the Company lawfully to purchase such Membership Interest.

14.05 Option by Other Members. If the Company fails or declines to exercise an option to purchase a Membership Interest of a Member as provided by this Agreement within the period of time specified for such option, then the other Members shall have the option for a period of ninety (90) days thereafter to purchase such Membership Interest in such proportions as they mutually agree or in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests for the same price and upon the same terms available to the Company.

- 14.06 Exercise of Option. Any option to purchase a Membership Interest as provided by this Agreement shall be deemed exercised at the time the purchasing party delivers to the selling party written notice of intent to exercise such option along with an initial payment in the form of a certified or cashier's check in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the estimated purchase price anticipated by the purchaser, in person or by United States registered mail, properly stamped and addressed to the last known address of the selling party.
- 14.07 Determination of Fair Value. The "Fair Value" of a Membership Interest shall be the amount that would be distributable to the Member holding such interest in the event that the assets of the Company were sold for cash and the proceeds, net of liabilities, were distributed to the holders of all Membership Interests pursuant to this Agreement. In the event that the Fair Value of a Membership Interest is to be determined under this Agreement, the Managers shall select a qualified independent appraiser to make such determination, and the Managers shall make the books and records available to the appraiser for such purpose. The determination of Fair Value made by such appraiser shall be final, conclusive, and binding on the Company, all Members, and all Assignees of a Membership Interest.
- 14.08 Fees and Expenses of Appraiser. In the case of a purchase and sale of Membership Interest under paragraph 14.01 of this Agreement (in the event of divorce of a Member), the fees and expenses of such appraiser shall be paid by the Company. In the case of a purchase and sale of Membership Interest under paragraph 14.02 or 15.01 (in the event of the bankruptcy or default of a Member), the fees and expenses of such appraiser shall be paid by the Bankrupt Member or Defaulting Member, by deducting at closing such fees and expenses from the purchase price to be paid to such Bankrupt Member or Defaulting Member, and remitting the same to the Company. Otherwise, the fees and expenses of such appraiser shall be shared equally by the purchaser and seller.
- 14.09 Right to Withdraw Option. In the event that a Member has exercised an election to purchase a Membership Interest under this Agreement and Fair Value has been determined as provided by paragraph 14.08 of this Agreement, such Member may elect to terminate its right to purchase within fifteen (15) days following its receipt of the determination of Fair Value, by delivery of written notice to the Company and to the Assignee. In such an event, the initial payment shall be returned to the Member withdrawing the option, and the other Members may elect to purchase the Membership Interest (or portion thereof) in such proportions as they mutually agree or in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests.

14.10 Terms of Purchase.

- (a) The closing date for any sale and purchase made pursuant to this Article shall be the later of (i) thirty (30) days after the notice of the exercise of option has been received by the selling party, or (ii) thirty (30) days after the parties have received notice of the Fair Value of the Membership Interest.
- (b) Payment of the purchase price for a Membership Interest may be made by the Company and/or the other Members as follows: (i) a down payment equal to ten percent (10%) of the Fair Value to be made at closing, and (ii) the balance of the purchase price, bearing interest at the General Interest Rate determined on the date of closing, to be paid in twenty-four (24) equal monthly installments, with the first payment due thirty (30) days after the date of closing. Any such purchaser shall have the right to pay all or any part of such obligation at any time or times in advance of maturity without penalty. In the event that the Company becomes a party to a Fundamental Business Transaction, such obligation (or remaining portion thereof) shall be paid in full within thirty (30) days of the date that the Company becomes a party to such transaction.

- (c) At the closing, the person selling the Membership Interest will transfer the Membership Interest free and clear of any liens or encumbrances, other than those which may have been created to secure any indebtedness or obligations of the Company.
- (d) In each event that a Membership Interest in the Company is purchased as described in this Agreement, upon the execution and delivery of the notes or payment of the cash as required herein, this Agreement shall operate as an automatic transfer to the purchaser of the Membership Interest in the Company. The payment to be made to the selling Member, Assignee, or its representative shall constitute complete release, liquidation and satisfaction of all the rights and interest of the selling Member, Assignee, or its representative (and of all persons claiming by, through, or under the selling Member, Assignee, or its representative) in and in respect of the Company, including, without limitation, any Membership Interest, any rights in specific Company property, and any rights against the Company and (insofar as the affairs of the Company are concerned) against the Members. The parties shall perform such actions and execute such documents that may be reasonably necessary to effectuate and evidence such purchase and sale, and release as provided by this paragraph.

ARTICLE XV DEFAULT OF A MEMBER

- 15.01 Failure to Contribute. If a Member does not contribute by the time required all or any portion of a Capital Contribution that Member is required to make as provided in this Agreement, the Company may exercise, on notice to that Member (the "Defaulting Member"), one or more of the following remedies:
 - (a) taking such action (including, without limitation, court proceedings) as the Managers may deem appropriate to obtain payment by the Defaulting Member of the portion of the Defaulting Member's Capital Contribution that is in default, together with interest thereon at the Default Interest Rate from the date that the Capital Contribution was due until the date that it is made, all at the cost and expense of the Defaulting Member;
 - (b) permitting the other Members in proportion to their Percentage Interests or in such other percentages as they may agree (the "Lending Member," whether one or more), to advance the portion of the Defaulting Member's Capital Contribution that is in default, with the following results:
 - (i) the sum advanced constitutes a loan from the Lending Member to the Defaulting Member and a Capital Contribution of that sum to the Company by the Defaulting Member pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Agreement,
 - (ii) the principal balance of the loan and all accrued unpaid interest thereon is due and payable in whole on the tenth (10th) day after written demand therefor by the Lending Member to the Defaulting Member,

- (iii) the amount lent bears interest at the Default Interest Rate from the day that the advance is deemed made until the date that the loan, together with all interest accrued on it, is repaid to the Lending Member,
- (iv) all distributions from the Company that otherwise would be made to the Defaulting Member (whether before or after termination of the Company) instead shall be paid to the Lending Member until the loan and all interest accrued on it have been paid in full to the Lending Member (with payments being applied first to accrued and unpaid interest and then to principal),
- (v) the payment of the loan and interest accrued on it is secured by a security interest in the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest, as more fully set forth in paragraph 15.02 of this Agreement, and
- (vi) the Lending Member has the right, in addition to the other rights and remedies granted to it pursuant to this Agreement or available to it at law or in equity, to take any action (including, without limitation, court proceedings) that the Lending Member may deem appropriate to obtain payment by the Defaulting Member of the loan and all accrued and unpaid interest on it, at the cost and expense of the Defaulting Member;
- (c) proportionately reducing the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest or other interest in the Company;
- (d) subordination of the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest to the non-defaulting Member; OR
 - (e) exercising any other rights and remedies available at law or in equity.
- 15.02 Security. Each Member grants to the Company, and to each Lending Member with respect to any loans made by the Lending Member to that Member as a Defaulting Member under this Article, as security, equally and ratably, for the payment of all Capital Contributions that Member has agreed to make and the payment of all loans and interest accrued on them made by Lending Members to that Member as a Defaulting Member pursuant to paragraph 15.01(b) of this Agreement, a security interest in, and a general lien on its Membership Interest and the proceeds thereof, all under the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of Texas. It is expressly agreed that the security interest created thereby shall be governed by Chapter 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of Texas. On any default in the payment of a Capital Contribution or in the payment of such a loan or interest accrued on it, the Company or the Lending Member, as applicable, is entitled to all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of Texas with respect to the security interest granted in this Article. Each Member shall execute and deliver to the Company and the other Members all financing statements and other instruments that the Managers or the Lending Member, as applicable, may request to effectuate and carry out the preceding provisions of this Article. At the option of the Managers or a Lending Member, this Agreement or a carbon, photographic, or other copy hereof may serve as a financing statement.

15.03 Compromise or Release. The obligation of a Defaulting Member or its legal representative or successor to make a contribution or otherwise pay cash or transfer property or to return cash or property paid or distributed to the Defaulting Member in violation of the TBOC or this Agreement may be compromised or released only with the approval of the u Unanimous Consent of the non defaulting Members. Notwithstanding the compromise or release, a creditor of the Company who extends credit or otherwise acts in reasonable reliance on that obligation, after the Member signs a writing that reflects the obligation and before the writing is amended or canceled to reflect the compromise or release, may enforce the original obligation.

15.04 Suspension. A Member's right to vote and otherwise exercise the rights of a Member in the Company may be suspended upon the Unanimous Consent of all other Members (not including the Member to be suspended) for such period as determined by such other Members which may be indefinite if that Member is found to have (a) willfully and knowingly violated any material provision of this Agreement; (b) committed fraud, theft, or gross negligence against the Company or one or more Members of the Company, or (c) knowingly engaged in wrongful conduct that such person should have known would adversely and materially affects the business or operation of the Company and which actually adversely and materially affected the business or operation of the Company (collectively, "Good Cause"). Such a Member shall be considered in breach of this Agreement, and the Company or other Members may also exercise any available remedies as provided in this Agreement or at law or in equity. The Company may offset any damages to the Company or its Members occasioned by the misconduct of the breaching Member against any amounts distributable or otherwise payable by the Company to the expelled Member.

ARTICLE XVI WINDING UP AND TERMINATION

- 16.01 Event Requiring Termination. The Company shall begin to wind up its affairs upon the first of the following to occur:
 - (a) the execution of an instrument approving the termination of the Company by a Simple Majority of the Members;
 - (b) the occurrence of any event that terminates the continued membership of the last remaining Member of the Company; provided, however, that the Company is not dissolved if, no later than ninety (90) days after the termination of the membership of the last remaining Member, the legal representative or successor of the last remaining Member agrees to cancel the event requiring winding up, to continue the Company and to become a Member, or to designate another person who agrees to become a Member, as of the date of termination of the membership of the last remaining Member;
 - (c) entry of a decree of judicial dissolution of the Company;
 - (d) the occurrence of a non-waivable event under the terms of the TBOC which requires the Company to be terminated; or
 - (e) by the act of a Simple Majority of the Members, if no capital has been paid into the Company, and the Company has not otherwise commenced business.
 - 16.02 Business May Be Continued. Except as provided in paragraph 16.01(b) of this Agreement:

- (a) an event that requires the winding up of the Company's business shall not terminate the Company if, no later than one year after the date of the event, the Members unanimously consent to cancel the event requiring winding up.
- (b) the expiration of a period of duration that requires the winding up of the Company's business shall not terminate the Company if, no later than three years after the date the period of duration expires, the Members unanimously consent to amend the Company's Certificate of Formation and this Agreement to extend the Company's period of duration.
- 16.03 Purchase of Former Member's Membership Interest. Upon an event requiring winding up as provided in 16.01 of this Agreement, the Company's books shall be closed upon the date of such event, so as to determine the Former Member's Membership Interest value on the date ending all of the Former Member's financial interest in the Company. Within one hundred eighty (180) days of such event, the Company shall purchase the Former Member's Membership Interest at Fair Value (as determined by paragraph 14.06 of this Agreement), upon terms of purchase as provided in Article XIV of this Agreement.
- 16.04 Liquidation. As soon as possible following an event requiring termination of the Company, the Managers shall act as liquidator or may appoint one or more Managers or Members as liquidator. The liquidator shall proceed diligently to wind up the affairs of the Company and make final distributions as provided herein and in the TBOC. The costs of liquidation shall be borne as a Company expense. Until final distribution, the liquidator shall continue to operate the Company properties with all of the power and authority of the Managers. The steps to be accomplished by the liquidator are as follows:
- (a) as promptly as possible after such event and again after final liquidation, the liquidator shall cause a proper accounting to be made by a recognized firm of certified public accountants of the Company's assets, liabilities, and operations through the last day of the calendar month in which the termination occurs or the final liquidation is completed, as applicable;
- (b) the liquidator shall cause the notice described in Section 11.052 of the TBOC to be delivered to each known claimant against the Company;
- (c) the liquidator shall pay, satisfy or discharge from Company funds all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company (including, without limitation, all expenses incurred in liquidation and any advances described in paragraph 4.04 of this Agreement) or otherwise make adequate provision for payment and discharge thereof (including, without limitation, the establishment of a cash escrow fund for contingent liabilities in such amount and for such term as the liquidator may reasonably determine); and
 - (d) all remaining assets of the Company shall be distributed to the Members as follows:
 - (i) the liquidator may sell any or all Company property, including to Members, and any resulting gain or loss from each sale shall be computed and allocated to the Capital Accounts of the Members;

- (ii) with respect to all Company property that has not been sold, the fair market value of that property shall be determined and the Capital Accounts of the Members shall be adjusted to reflect the manner in which the unrealized income, gain, loss, and deduction inherent in property that has not been reflected in the Capital Accounts previously would be allocated among the Members if there were a taxable disposition of that property for the fair market value of that property on the date of distribution; and
- (iii) Company property shall be distributed among the Members in accordance with the positive Capital Account balances of the Members, as determined after taking into account all Capital Account adjustments for the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the company occurs (other than those made by reason of this clause (iii)); and those distributions shall be made by the end of the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the Company occurs (or, if later, ninety (90) days after the date of liquidation).

All distributions in kind to the Members shall be made subject to the liability of each distributee for costs, expenses, and liabilities theretofore incurred or for which the Company has committed prior to the date of termination and those costs, expenses, and liabilities shall be allocated to the distributee pursuant to this paragraph. Upon completion of all distributions to the Member, such distribution shall constitute a complete return to the Member of its Capital Contributions and release all claims against the Company. To the extent that a Member returns funds to the Company, it has no claim against any other Member for those funds.

16.05 Deficit Capital Accounts. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, and notwithstanding any custom or rule of law to the contrary, to the extent that the deficit, if any, in the Capital Account of any Member results from or is attributable to deductions and losses of the Company (including non-cash items such as depreciation), or distributions of money pursuant to this Agreement to all Members in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests, upon termination of the Company such deficit shall not be an asset of the Company and such Members shall not be obligated to contribute such amount to the Company to bring the balance of such Member's Capital Account to zero.

16.06 Certificate of Termination. On completion of the distribution of Company assets as provided herein, the Company is terminated, and the Managers (or such other person or persons as the TBOC may require or permit) shall execute, acknowledge and cause to be filed a Certificate of Termination, at which time the Company shall cease to exist as a limited liability company.

ARTICLE XVII AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION

17.01 Amendment or Modification. This Agreement may be amended or modified from time to time only with a written instrument executed with the Unanimous Consent of the Members.

ARTICLE XVIII GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 18.01 Construction. Whenever the context requires, the gender of all words used in this Agreement includes the masculine, feminine, and neuter. In the event there is only one Member, then references to Members in the plural should be construed as singular; likewise, in the event there is only one Manager, then references to Members in the plural should also be construed as singular.
- 18.02 Offset. Whenever the Company is to pay any sum to any Member, any amounts that Member owes the Company may be deducted from that sum before payment.
- 18.03 Notices. Except as expressly set forth to the contrary in this Agreement, all notices, requests, or consents provided for or permitted to be given under this Agreement must be in writing and must be given either by depositing that writing in the United States mail, addressed to the recipient, postage paid, and registered or certified with return receipt requested or by delivering that writing to the recipient in person, by courier, or by facsimile transmission; and a notice, request, or consent given under this Agreement is effective on receipt by the person. All notices, requests, and consents to be sent to a Member must be sent to or made at the addresses given for that Member on Exhibit A or such other address as that Member may specify by notice to the other Members. Any notice, request, or consent to the Company or the Managers must be given to the Managers at the following address:

13901 Midway, Suite 102-243 Farmers Branch, Texas 75244

Whenever any notice is required to be given by law, the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement, a written waiver thereof, signed by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

- 18.04 Entire Agreement; Supersedes Other Agreements. This Agreement includes the entire agreement of the Members and their Affiliates relating to the Company and supersedes all prior contracts or agreements with respect to the Company, whether oral or written.
- 18.05 Effect of Waiver or Consent. A waiver or consent, express or implied, to or of any breach or default by any person in the performance by that person of its obligations with respect to the Company is not a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance by that person of the same or any other obligations of that person with respect to the Company. Failure on the part of a person to complain of any act of any person or to declare any person in default with respect to the Company, irrespective of how long that failure continues, does not constitute a waiver by that person of its rights with respect to that default until the applicable statute-of-limitations period has run.
- 18.06 Binding Effect. Subject to the restrictions on Transfers set forth in this Agreement, this Agreement is binding on and inure to the benefit of the Members and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns. However, unless and until properly admitted as a Member, no Assignee will have any rights of a Member beyond those provided expressly set forth in this Agreement or granted by the TBOC to assignees.
- 18.07 Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT IS GOVERNED BY AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, EXCLUDING ANY CONFLICT-OF-LAWS RULE OR PRINCIPLE THAT MIGHT REFER THE GOVERNANCE OR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT TO THE LAW

OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

- 18.08 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement and the application of that provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected thereby and that provision shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.
- 18.09 Further Assurances. In connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, each Member shall execute and deliver any additional documents and instruments and perform any additional acts that may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and perform the provisions of this Agreement and those transactions.
- 18.10 Waiver of Certain Rights. Each Member irrevocably waives any right it may have to maintain any action for dissolution of the Company or for partition of the property of the Company.
- 18.11 Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by law, each Member shall indemnify the Company, each Manager and each other Member and hold them harmless from and against all losses, costs, liabilities, damages, and expenses (including, without limitation, costs of suit and attorney's fees) they may incur on account of any breach by that Member of this Agreement.
- 18.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all signing parties had signed the same instrument.

ARTICLE XIX NOTICES AND DISCLOSURES

- 19.01 Compliance with Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933. THE OWNERSHIP INTERESTS THAT ARE THE SUBJECT OF THIS COMPANY AGREEMENT HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR ANY STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THE INTERESTS MAY NOT BE OFFERED FOR SALE, SOLD, PLEDGED, TRANSFERRED, OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED OF UNTIL THE HOLDER THEREOF PROVIDES EVIDENCE SATISFACTORY TO THE MANAGERS (WHICH, IN THE DISCRETION OF THE MANAGERS, MAY INCLUDE AN OPINION OF COUNSEL) THAT SUCH OFFER, SALE, PLEDGE, TRANSFER, OR OTHER DISPOSITION WILL NOT VIOLATE APPLICABLE FEDERAL OR STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THE OWNERSHIP INTERESTS THAT ARE THE SUBJECT OF THIS COMPANY AGREEMENT ARE SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS ON THE SALE, PLEDGE, TRANSFER, OR OTHER DISPOSITION AS SET FORTH IN THIS COMPANY AGREEMENT.
- 19.02 Notice to Members. By executing this Agreement, each Member acknowledges that it has actual notice of all of the provisions of this Agreement, including, without limitation, the restrictions on the transfer of Membership Interests set forth in this Agreement, and all of the provisions of the Certificate of Formation. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, each Member hereby agrees that this Agreement constitutes adequate notice of any notice requirement under Chapter 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code, and each Member hereby waives any requirement that any further notice thereunder be given.
 - 19.03 Limitation of Liability. Pursuant to Article 581-1 et seq. of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes (the "Texas Securities Act"), the liability under the Texas Securities Act of a lawyer, accountant, consultant, the firm of any of the foregoing, and any other person engaged to provide services relating to an offering of securities of the Company ("Service Providers") is limited to a maximum of three times the fee paid by the Company or seller of the Company's securities, unless the trier of fact finds that such Service Provider engaged in intentional wrongdoing in providing the services. By executing this Agreement, each Member hereby acknowledges the disclosure contained in this paragraph.

Do as Robert says and make Max owner in trtx and we will make him sign and then I will be added as guarantor if needed

T:b

You could make Max a co-owner -member in TRTX properties that way when you go to refinance it in his name personally the lender treats ur as a refinance and he won't have to put any money down Plus it's easier to get a loan refinanced.

If Purchaser has any objections to the Survey, Title Commitment or Title Documents, then Purchaser may deliver the objections to Seller prior to the expiration of the Review Period. Except as otherwise provided herein, any item to which Purchaser or its lender does not object prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period which is not otherwise required to be cured by the Title Company shall be deemed a "Permitted Any other provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, all liquidated liens disclosed in the Title Commitment (or any subsequent commitment) and all other exceptions disclosed in the Title Commitment (or any subsequent commitment) which arise on or after the Effective Date of this Agreement and are not attributable to actions by Purchaser (collectively, the "Mandatory Cure Items"), shall be satisfied, cured or removed by Seller, at Seller's sole cost and expense, at or prior to the Closing. The Mandatory Cure Items and any other items that the Title Company identifies that it requires to be released at Closing will be deemed objections by Purchaser that must be cured and shall not be Permitted Exceptions. If there are objections by Purchaser, including a third party lender, Seller may, but is not obligated to attempt to satisfy such objections except as otherwise provided herein, and Seller shall respond in writing irrevocably identifying which objections it will not cure and which objects it will cure which shall occur within ten (10) days after receipt of Purchaser's objections (the "Cure Period"). Regardless of any conflict herein or Purchaser's objections or any failure to object, any blanket easements, Seller's retained rights or rights of third parties including mineral owners and lessees, restrictions, or other encumbrances which would prohibit or materially interfere with or increase the costs of Purchaser's redevelopment of the Land shall be deemed objections which must be cured by Seller at Seller's expense prior to Closing which shall be a condition to Purchaser's closing. Otherwise, Purchaser's failure to object within the time provided shall be a waiver of the right to object.

- Cure Period. If Seller cannot cure the objections as required above within the Cure Period, then Purchaser may terminate this Contract by delivering a written notice to Seller within ten (10) days after the expiration of the Cure Period and otherwise shall be deemed to have elected to extend the Cure Period as necessary but not later than the Closing Date in order for Seller to cure such objection which shall be a condition for Purchaser to close but which may be waived by Purchaser prior to Closing. If Purchaser terminates this Contract or elects not to close because of Seller's failure to cure any required objection, the refundable portion of the Earnest Money and any fees remitted by Purchaser shall be immediately returned to Purchaser and thereafter neither party shall have any rights or obligations under this Contract (except for those which may expressly survive the termination of this Contact). If Purchaser does not terminate this Contract and proceeds with Closing, then Purchaser shall be deemed to have waived any uncured objections and must accept such title as Seller is able to convey as of Closing, subject to the other terms and provisions of this Contract. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at or prior to Closing, Seller shall discharge or cause to be discharged all: (i) matters set forth on Schedule C of the Title Commitment; (ii) exceptions to title created after the Effective Date without the written consent of Purchaser; and (iii) judgments, liens and mortgages affecting the Property, and same shall not constitute Permitted Exceptions.
- C. Updated Commitment. If Purchaser determines, in Purchaser's sole discretion, no matter how arbitrary, that the Property is not in satisfactory condition or is not suitable for Purchaser's intended use or purpose, or if Purchaser for any reason does not desire to proceed with the acquisition of the Property, then Purchaser may terminate this Contract by delivering a written notice to Seller on or before the last day of the Inspection Period, in which event, the Earnest Money, other than the Independent Consideration, shall be promptly returned by the Title Company to Purchaser and neither party shall have any further rights or obligations under this Contract (except for those which may expressly survive the termination of this Contract).
- Restoration. If the transaction described in this Contract does not close through no fault of Seller, and the condition of the Property was altered due to tests and inspections performed by Purchaser or on Purchaser's behalf, Purchaser must restore the Property to its original condition. Purchaser shall not permit any liens or encumbrances to arise against the Property in connection with or as a result of such inspections, studies, or investigations. PURCHASER SHALL INDEMNIFY, DEFEND AND HOLD SELLER HARMLESS OF AND FROM ANY AND ALL LOSSES, LIABILITIES, COSTS, EXPENSES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, REASONABLE ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS OF COURT), DAMAGES, LIENS, CLAIMS (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, MECHANICS' OR MATERIALMEN'S LIENS OR CLAIMS OF LIENS), ACTIONS AND CAUSES OF ACTION (COLLECTIVELY, "CLAIMS") ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO PURCHASER'S (OR PURCHASER'S AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, SUBCONTRACTORS, OR REPRESENTATIVES) ENTERING UPON THE PROPERTY TO TEST, STUDY, INVESTIGATE, OR INSPECT THE PROPERTY, WHETHER PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION 9, OR OTHERWISE, UNLESS DUE TO THE NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OF SELLER. Purchaser will not be required to indemnify, defend or hold Seller harmless of or from any condition affecting any of the Property prior to Purchaser's entry thereon. This Section 9(E) shall survive termination of this Contract or a Closing of the transaction contemplated hereunder.
- E. Extension of Inspection Period. Purchaser may extend the Inspection Period for an additional thirty (30) days upon the delivery to the Title Company of an Additional Earnest Money deposit of TEN-THOUSAND AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($10,000.00) (this and any other "Additional Earnest Money" together with the initial "Earnest Money" referred to collectively as "Earnest Money") prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period which shall be be treated as any other Earnest Money; BUT SHALL NOT be applicable to the Purchase Price at the Closing.

- 10. CASUALTY LOSS; CONDEMNATION. All risk of loss to the Property shall remain upon Seller prior to the Closing. If, prior to the Closing, any portion of the Property is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, or subject to a condemnation or taking or the threat of a condemnation or taking, Seller shall have a duty to notify Purchaser, and Purchaser may either terminate this Contract by delivering a written termination notice to Seller or elect to close. If the transaction is to proceed to Closing, there shall be no reduction in the Purchase Price, but Seller shall assign to Purchaser all of Seller's right and interest in any insurance proceeds and/or condemnation awards, as applicable, plus an amount equal to any insurance deductible.
- 11. ASSIGNMENT. Purchaser may assign this Contract without the prior written consent of Seller. Any survey costs shall be allocated to the party listed at Section 5(A). The Seller shall pay the costs of recording any releases, and the Purchaser shall pay the cost of recording the deed and any lender costs on its side of the transaction. All other costs shall be allocated among the Parties as is customary for a transaction of this character in the county where the Property is located, or as otherwise agreed.
- E. Real Estate Commissions. Seller shall be responsible for paying Vanguard Real Estate Advisors commission(s) as agreed under a separate agreement. This provision shall survive the Closing.
- G. Rollback Taxes. Seller shall pay Purchaser any rollback taxes (i) within the three (3) year period immediately following the calendar year in which the Closing occurs; and (ii) attributable to the period that Seller owned the applicable portion of the Property. Appropriate prorations shall be made in the calculation of any rollback taxes payable by Seller hereunder based upon the date on which the rollback taxes are actually triggered with respect to the Property. Alternatively, Purchaser may reduce the payment on the Note by the amount of Rollback Taxes assessed against the Property and owed by Seller following Closing. This provision shall survive Closing.
- H. Foreign Person Notification. In the event of any breach of the representations or warranties in this Contract discovered after Closing or if Purchaser elects to enforce specific

- B. Seller's Remedies. If Purchaser fails to perform its obligations under this Contract for any reason (except resulting from Seller's default or the termination of this Contract by Purchaser pursuant to a right to terminate as set forth in this Contract) which continues for more than five (5) business days following delivery of written notice of such default from Seller to Purchaser, Purchaser shall be in default and Seller may, as Seller's sole remedy, terminate this Contract, in which event, the Earnest Money along with any extension fees paid by Purchaser shall be delivered to Seller as liquidated damages for the Purchaser's breach of this Contract, thereby releasing Purchaser from this Contract.

Purchaser's studies may include without limitation: (i) core borings; (ii) environmental and architectural tests and investigations; (iii) physical inspections of all improvements, fixtures, equipment, subsurface soils, structural members, and personal property; and (iv) examination of plans specifications, manuals, and other documents relating to the construction and condition of the Property. Purchaser and Purchaser's agents employees, consultants and contractors shall have the right of reasonable entry onto the Property during normal business hours, and upon reasonable advance notice to Seller and/or Seller's tenants, for purposes of the inspections, studies, tests and examinations deemed necessary by Purchaser. All inspections, studies, tests and examinations performed hereunder shall be at Purchaser's expense. If Purchaser terminates this Contract, Purchaser shall deliver copies of third party studies it obtains on the Property to the Seller, all of which shall be delivered without representation or warranty by Purchaser. Purchaser shall not, however, be required to deliver to Seller copies of any reports or other "work product" prepared or developed by Purchaser or any of its employees or affiliates.
- B. Report. Prior to the expiration of ten (10) days following the Effective Date, Seller shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Purchaser, copies of any and all other documents, instruments and information known to Seller or in Seller's actual possession or control and/or received pursuant to or in connection with the Property including relating to the condition, status, and approvals of the Land including, without limitation, all platting and zoning applications and proposed zoning documents, contracts, development agreements, permits, annexation, approvals, compliance, declarations, restrictions, preliminary plans, site plans, conceptual plans, preliminary plats, final plats, topographical maps, soil tests, inspection reports, environmental reports, flood plain information and building restrictions and any and all documents creating, evidencing, governing or created by or for any property or homeowners' association affecting, governing or relating to the Land or the Lots. A G

- C. Termination. If Purchaser determines, in Purchaser's sole discretion, no matter how arbitrary, that the Property is not in satisfactory condition or is not suitable for Purchaser's intended use or purpose, or if Purchaser for any reason does not desire to proceed with the acquisition of the Property, then Purchaser may terminate this Contract by delivering a written notice to Seller on or before the last day of the Inspection Period, in which event, the Earnest Money, other than the Independent Consideration, shall be promptly returned by the Title Company to Purchaser and neither party shall have any further rights or obligations under this Contract (except for those which may expressly survive the termination of this Contract).
- Restoration. If the transaction described in this Contract does not close through no D. fault of Seller, and the condition of the Property was altered due to tests and inspections performed by Purchaser or on Purchaser's behalf, Purchaser must restore the Property to its original condition. Purchaser shall not permit any liens or encumbrances to arise against the Property in connection with or as a result of such inspections, studies, or investigations. PURCHASER SHALL INDEMNIFY, DEFEND AND HOLD SELLER HARMLESS OF AND FROM ANY AND ALL LOSSES, LIABILITIES, COSTS, EXPENSES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, REASONABLE ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS OF COURT), DAMAGES, LIENS, CLAIMS (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, MECHANICS' OR MATERIALMEN'S LIENS OR CLAIMS OF LIENS), ACTIONS AND CAUSES OF ACTION (COLLECTIVELY, "CLAIMS") ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO PURCHASER'S (OR PURCHASER'S AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, SUBCONTRACTORS, OR REPRESENTATIVES) ENTERING UPON THE PROPERTY TO TEST, STUDY, INVESTIGATE, OR INSPECT THE PROPERTY, WHETHER PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION 9, OR OTHERWISE, UNLESS DUE TO THE NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OF SELLER. Purchaser will not be required to indemnify, defend or hold Seller harmless of or from any condition affecting any of the Property prior to Purchaser's entry thereon. This Section 9(E) shall survive termination of this Contract or a Closing of the transaction contemplated hereunder.
- E. Extension. Purchase may extend the Inspection Period for an additional thirty (30) days upon the delivery to the Title Company of an additional Earnest Money deposit of Fice-Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($5,000.00) ("Additional Earnest Money" together with the initial "Earnest Money" referred to collectively as "Earnest Money") prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period which shall be applicable to the Purchase Price.
- 10. CASUALTY LOSS; CONDEMNATION. All risk of loss to the Property shall remain upon Seller prior to the Closing. If, prior to the Closing, any portion of the Property is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, or subject to a condemnation or taking or the threat of a condemnation or taking, Seller shall have a duty to notify Purchaser, and Purchaser may either terminate this Contract by delivering a written termination notice to Seller or elect to close. If the transaction is to proceed to Closing, there shall be no reduction in the Purchase Price, but Seller shall assign to Purchaser all of Seller's right and interest in any insurance proceeds and/or condemnation awards, as applicable, plus an amount equal to any insurance deductible.
- 11. ASSIGNMENT. Purchaser may assign this Contract without the prior written consent of Seller. This Contract shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective legal representatives, successors, assigns, heirs, and devises of the parties; however, Seller may not assign this Contract without Purchaser's consent.

12. CLOSING.

- A. Closing Date. The closing of the transaction described in this Contract (the "Closing") shall be held on the date which is sixty (60) days following the last day of the Inspection Period (the "Closing Date"), at the offices of the Title Company. Purchaser may extend the Closing Date for two (2) thirty (30) day periods upon the delivery to the Title Company of a non-refundable extension fee equal to Ten Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($10,000.00) for each extension prior to the applicable Closing Date. The extension fee shall be applicable to Purchase Price at Closing.
- B. Seller's Closing Documents. At the Closing, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser at Seller's expense:
 - (1) A duly executed Special Warranty Deed (the "Deed"), in a form reasonably acceptable to Seller and Purchaser, conveying the Property in fee simple according to the legal description as prepared by the surveyor as shown on the Survey, subject only to the Permitted Exceptions;
 - (2) The Title Policy issued by the underwriter for the Title Company pursuant to the Title Commitment, subject only to the Permitted Exceptions, in the full amount of the Purchase Price, dated as of the date of Closing, and with the survey exception deleted except as to "shortages in area;"
 - (3) Bill of Sale conveying the personal property, if any, including all Intangible Property and other items described in section 2 which are not considered part of the Land;
 - (4) Possession of the Property;
 - (5) Evidence of Seller's authority and capacity to close this transaction;
 - (6) Assignment of all Intangible Property;
 - (7) Any required surface use waiver;
 - (8) All other documents reasonably required in this Contract or by the Title Company from Seller to close this transaction.
- C. Purchaser's Closing Documents. At the Closing, Purchaser shall deliver to Seller at Purchaser's expense:
 - (1) The Cash Payment;

- (2) The Note in the principal amount of the Purchase Price less any and all Earnest Money deposits and applicable fees which have been remitted and the Deed of Trust:
 - (3) Evidence of Purchaser's authority and capacity to close this transaction; and
- (4) All other documents reasonably required by the Title Company from Purchaser to close this transaction.
- D. Closing Costs. The base title policy premiums shall be paid by Seller and any endorsements or extended coverage shall be paid by Purchaser. Any survey costs shall be allocated to the party listed at Section 5(A). The Seller shall pay the costs of recording any releases, and the Purchaser shall pay the cost of recording the deed and any lender costs on its side of the transaction. The escrow fees shall be equally split between the parties. All other costs shall be allocated among the Parties as is customary for a transaction of this character in the county where the Property is located, or as otherwise agreed.
- E. Prorations. Prior to Closing, Seller shall pay prior to delinquency all taxes and expenses applicable to the Property. Ad valorem taxes applicable to the Property shall be prorated at the Closing effective as of the Closing date. If the Closing occurs before the tax rate is fixed for the current tax year, the apportionment of the taxes shall be upon the basis of the tax rate for the preceding year applied to the latest assessed valuation, but any difference between estimated taxes for the current tax year and the actual taxes paid by Purchaser shall be adjusted equitably between the parties upon proof of payment of the taxes by Purchaser. This provision shall survive the Closing.
- F. Rollback Taxes. Seller shall pay Purchaser any rollback taxes (i) within the three (3) year period immediately following the calendar year in which the Closing occurs; and (ii) attributable to the period that Seller owned the applicable portion of the Property. For purposes of calculating the Additional Tax, Seller shall be deemed to have owned the applicable portion of the Property for the five year period immediately preceding the Closing Date. Appropriate prorations shall be made in the calculation of any rollback taxes payable by Seller hereunder based upon the date on which the rollback taxes are actually triggered with respect to the Property. Alternatively, Purchaser may reduce the payment on the Note by the amount of Rollback Taxes assessed against the Property and owed by Seller following Closing. This provision shall survive Closing.
- G. Foreign Person Notification. If Seller is a Foreign Person, as deemed by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, or if Seller fails to deliver to Purchaser a non-foreign affidavit pursuant to Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code, then Purchaser may withhold from the sales proceeds an amount sufficient to comply with applicable tax law and deliver the withheld proceeds to the Internal Revenue Service together with appropriate tax forms. The required affidavit(s) from Seller(s) shall include (1) a statement that Seller is not a foreign person, (2) the U. S. taxpayer identification number(s) of Seller(s), and (3) other information required by Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code.

13. DEFAULT.

- A. Purchaser's Remedies. If Seller fails to perform its obligations under this Contract for any reason (except resulting from Purchaser's default or the termination of this Contract by Seller pursuant to a right to terminate as set forth in this Contract) which continues for more than five (5) business days following delivery of written notice of such default from Purchaser to Seller, Seller shall be in default and Purchaser may elect one of the following, as Purchaser's sole remedies: (1) enforce specific performance of this Contract; or (2) terminate this Contract and receive a refund of the Earnest Money along with any extension fees paid, other than the Independent Consideration, immediately. In the event of any breach of the representations or warranties in this Contract discovered after Closing or if Purchaser elects to enforce specific performance and such remedy is not available as a result of Seller's actions, such as conveying the Property to a third party, then Purchaser may pursue any legal remedy available at law or in equity.
- B. Seller's Remedies. If Purchaser fails to perform its obligations under this Contract for any reason (except resulting from Seller's default or the termination of this Contract by Purchaser pursuant to a right to terminate as set forth in this Contract) which continues for more than five (5) business days following delivery of written notice of such default from Seller to Purchaser, Purchaser shall be in default and Seller may, as Seller's sole remedy, terminate this Contract, in which event, the Earnest Money along with any extension fees paid by Purchaser shall be delivered to Seller as liquidated damages for the Purchaser's breach of this Contract, thereby releasing Purchaser from this Contract.

PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

This Participation Agreement ("Agreement") is made this _____ day of January, 2022 between MARINE CREEK SP LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Participant"), and MARINE CREEK VENTURES LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Owner") (collectively referred to as the "Parties").

A. WHEREAS, MANSIONS APARTMENT HOMES AT MARINE CREEK LLC, a Texas limited liability company ("Seller", and related to Participant herein), and Owner (as "Purchaser" therein have entered into that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement dated on or about December 23, 2021 respecting that certain tract of land containing approximately 40.20 acres, more or less, located in Tarrant County, Texas, generally located at the intersection of Loop 820 and Huffines Boulevard, City of Fort Worth, County of Tarrant, State of Texas, and depicted in Exhibit A attached hereto, and depicted in Exhibit A attached hereto (the "Property") (the "Purchase and Sale Agreement"). The Property is currently planned to be development in three (3) phases, to include one or more multifamily residential communities and related infrastructure and amenities (the foregoing and related activities upon the Land, referred to herein as the "Development Project", or at times simply, the "Project").

B.WHEREAS, Owner's acquisition and development of the Project would not be possible but for the sale of the Land and assignment of associated development rights identified in the Purchase and Sale Agreement as the Property, from Participant's related entity, as Seller, to Owner, as the Purchaser, upon the terms and provisions set forth therein. In further consideration thereof, and expressly irrespective of any "entirety" or other provision contained in the Purchase and Sale Agreement, the parties hereto, expressly covenant and agree to the terms and provisions of this Participation Agreement, to among other things, expressly provide for the Participation Fee (as defined herein) to be paid by the Owner.

C.WHEREAS, both parties are experienced real estate developers who wish to participate in the development of the Project in accordance with the provisions hereof.

D.WHEREAS, consistent therewith, Owner has agreed to grant to Participant a right to participate in the Value Created (as defined herein) during the course of the initial development of the Project, and or arising from any near term sale or condemnation of all or any portion of the Property, all as more particularly set forth herein.

THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing premises and the respective agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged and stipulated, Owner and Participant hereby covenant and agree as follows:

AGREEMENTS

ARTICLE I Assignment; Participation Fee

- 1.01 Assignment; Payment Following Stabilized Occupancy. Owner agrees to pay to Participant twenty-five percent (25%) (the "Applicable Percentage") of the Achieved Increased Value (as defined herein) (the "Participation Fee") payable ninety (90) days following the date that any Phase of the Development achieves Stabilized Occupancy, or such earlier date as Participant may elect with no less than thirty (30) days prior notice to Owner ("Payment Date"). Stabilized Occupancy shall mean ninety (90%) percent occupancy for a trailing three-month period ("Stabilized Occupancy"). The amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement shall be in addition to the amounts due to Participant under the Purchase and Sale Agreement, and the amounts due to an affiliate of Participant, if any, under any development agreement respecting the Project.
- 1.02 Payment In The Absence of Stabilized Occupancy. In the event that Stabilized Occupancy is not achieved within three (3) years from the date hereof (for whatever reason), and Participant has not previously set a Payment Date, then on the thirtieth (30) day following such anniversary date, Owner shall pay to Participant the Participation Fee based upon a calculation that the Property had been sold for Fair Market Value on such anniversary date. Fair Market Value shall be as determined as such procedure is set forth in Exhibit "B" attached hereto. It is understood, acknowledged and agreed by the parties hereto that the provisions of this Section shall only apply in the event that the Property is not sold or exchanged and the Participation Fee not paid until that date which is three (3) years from the date hereof.
- 1.03 Definitions. Unless otherwise indicated, the capitalized defined terms used in this Agreement shall have the respective means set forth for such terms on Exhibit "B" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference for all purposes as if set forth herein verbatim.

ARTICLE II Sale or Refinancing of the Property

- 2.01 Net Proceeds from Sale or Refinancing. In the event of a Sale or Refinancing prior to the Stabilized Occupancy or Payment Date, then Owner shall pay to Participant in cash an amount equal to the Applicable Percentage of the Net Proceeds (as a Participation Fee) from any Sale or Refinancing immediately following such Sale or Refinancing unless Section 2.02 is applicable.
- 2.02 Other Proceeds from Sale. In the event Owner shall receive a note or any other evidence of indebtedness in connection with any Sale, the Participation Fee shall be payable only on the cash portion of such Sale and Participant shall be entitled to receive an interest in Net Proceeds from such note equal to the Applicable Percentage. Owner shall execute and deliver to Participant (i) a Deed of Trust or other appropriate document covering such property in the same form as the PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT- Page 2 documents then evidencing the liens securing Owner's obligations under this Agreement to secure Owner's obligations under the profits participation agreement delivered pursuant to subparagraph (ii) below (or such other form as Participant may reasonably require); and (ii) a participation agreement in form and content identical to this Agreement, covering such note (or such other form as Participant may reasonably require).

2.03 Notice of Sale. Owner shall give Participant at least ten (10) days advance written notice of any contemplated Sale or Refinancing, and such notice shall include an executed copy of the contract of sale or loan commitment and shall set forth in detail the terms of such Sale or Refinancing and the identity of the actual contemplated purchaser or lender, including a description of the relationship, if any, which Owner has or will have with such purchaser or lender. Participant may elect to receive the Participation Fee directly from the title company closing such Sale or Refinancing and shall receive a copy of the closing statement for such transaction.

ARTICLE III Exchange of the Property

- 3.01 Net Proceeds from Exchange. In the event of an Exchange prior to the Stabilized Occupancy Date or Payment Date, and if the Owner shall enter into a transaction to exchange the Property for a different property without the Participant's consent, then Owner shall pay to Participant in cash an amount equal to the Applicable Percentage of the Net Proceeds (as a Participation Fee) from any Exchange immediately following the occurrence thereof unless Section 3.02 is applicable. For purposes of determining the amount of Net Proceeds from any Exchange, the property other than cash received in connection with such Exchange (hereinafter referred to as the "Exchange Property") shall be deemed to be cash in an amount equal to the greater of the Fair Market Value of the Exchange Property or the value allocated to the Exchange Property in the exchange agreement unless Owner elects to receive an interest in the Exchange Property pursuant to Section 3.02 hereof.
- 3.02 Other Proceeds from Exchange. In the event Owner shall receive a note or any other evidence of indebtedness in connection with any Exchange, Owner shall pay to Participant the amount which Participant would be entitled to receive if Owner had received cash in lieu of such note in an amount equal to the principal amount due under such note plus the amount, if any, by which the interest payable over the term of such note exceeds the Market Rate in effect at the time of such Exchange or Refinancing. At Participant's option, in Participant's sole and absolute discretion, Participant shall be entitled to receive an interest in Net Proceeds from the Exchange Property equal to the Applicable Percentage in lieu of receiving payment of Net Proceeds resulting from the Exchange. If Participant elects to receive an interest in the Exchange Property, Owner shall execute and deliver to Participant (i) a Deed of Trust or other appropriate document covering such property in the same form as the documents then evidencing the liens securing Owner's obligations under this Agreement to secure Owner's obligations under the profits participation agreement delivered pursuant to subparagraph (ii) below (or such other form as Participant may reasonably require); and (ii) a profits participation agreement in form and content identical to this Agreement, covering the Exchange Property (or such other form as Participant may reasonably require).

3.03 Notice of Exchange. Owner shall give Participant at least thirty (30) days' advance written notice of any contemplated Exchange, and such notice shall include an executed copy of the exchange agreement, and shall set forth in detail the terms of such Exchange and a description of the relationship, if any, which Owner has or will have with any other parties to such transaction. The Parties hereto herby acknowledge that the entering into and or exercise of any rights by Participant provided under this Participation Agreement, and any payments that may be paid or payable to Participant from the Owner, as a result of such exercise, if any, are of speculative and uncertain value and are contingent upon various factors susceptible to fluctuations in market conditions. Owner and Participant acknowledge that presently it is not possible to determine either the value of the amounts, if any, Participant will receive hereunder, or subsequently, as a result thereof, and that it is possible that the rights granted Participant hereunder will be of no monetary value. Owner makes no representation or guaranty that any distributions from the Owner or proceeds from the sale or refinancing or other disposition of any of the Property, will ever occur or take place. Within three (3) days after receipt of Participant's written request therefor, Owner shall provide Participant with an additional verified statement setting forth the amounts attributable to such additional items based upon which Net Proceeds are calculated as are specified in Participant's request.
- Books and Records. Participant shall from time to time during normal business hours have access to and may make copies of all Owner's books and records, contracts, invoices, bills pertaining to the Property, and claims for labor, materials, and services supplied for the Property. Participant shall have the right to audit such books and records, including calculations of Net Proceeds or Participation Fee. Owner shall keep full, true and accurate books and records of all revenues and expenses from the Property and permit Participant, at any time during normal business hours, to inspect, audit, review and make copies of all contracts, invoices, cancelled checks and books and records of Owner pertaining to the Property and/or the ownership and operation thereof and/or to any Sale or Exchange. This covenant contained in this paragraph shall survive payment of the Net Proceeds due Participant hereunder.
- 6.05 Payment of Undisputed Amounts. No matter when a final determination of the amount of Net Proceeds is made, Owner shall pay, immediately following any Sale or Exchange or other event pursuant to which Net Proceeds is due, all amounts which would be due pursuant to this Agreement if Owner's calculation of Net Proceeds were correct, based upon Owner's good faith calculations of such amount.

- (c) Participant is paid the amount which Participant would receive if a Sale occurred pursuant to which Net Proceeds were received in cash in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of the Property; and

PROMISSORY NOTE

JUNE 25, 2018

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, on February 29, 2020 ("Maturity Date"), the undersigned and if more than one, each of them, jointly and severally (hereinafter referred to as "Borrower"), promises to pay to the order of WALL010 LLC, ("Bank") at its offices in DALLAS County, Texas at 1755 WITTINGTON PLACE, SUITE 340 DALLAS, TEXAS 75234, the principal amount of THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND AND 00/100THS ($300,000.00) ("Total Principal Amount"), or such amount, that has been advanced to Borrower, together with interest on such portion of the Total Principal Amount which has been advanced to Borrower from the date advanced until paid at the rate of ONE AND 00/100THS PERCENT (1.000%) per annum calculated on the basis of the actual days elapsed but computed as if each year consisted of 365 days.

The principal of and all accrued but unpaid interest on this Note shall be due and payable as follows:

THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT IS DUE AND PAYABLE February 29, 2020 AND THE INTEREST IS DUE AND PAYABLE AT MATURITY; and

THIS LOAN IS PAYABLE IN FULL ON February 29, 2020. AT MATURITY, YOU MUST REPAY THE ENTIRE PRINCIPAL BALANCE OF THE LOAN AND UNPAID INTEREST THEN DUE. THE PAYEE IS UNDER NO OBLIGATION TO REFINANCE THE LOAN AT THAT TIME, YOU WILL, THEREFORE, BE REQUIRED TO MAKE PAYMENT OUT OF OTHER ASSETS THAT YOU MAY OWN, OR YOU WILL HAVE TO FIND A LENDER, WHICH MAY BE THE LENDER YOU HAVE THIS LOAN WITH, WILLING TO LEND YOU THE MONEY. IF YOU REFINANCE THIS LOAN AT MATURITY, YOU MAY HAVE TO PAY SOME OR ALL OF THE CLOSING COSTS NORMALLY ASSOCIATED WITH A NEW LOAN EVEN IF YOU OBTAIN REFINANCING FROM THE SAME LENDER.

The outstanding principal balance of this Note, together with all accrued but unpaid interest, shall be due and payable on the Maturity Date.

To the extent that any interest is not paid on or before the first day after it becomes due and payable, Bank may, at its option, add such accrued interest to the principal of this Note. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, upon an Event of Default (as hereinafter defined) or at meturity, whether by acceleration or otherwise, all principal of this Note shall, at the option of Bank, bear interest at the Maximum Rate until paid.

The term "Maximum Rate," as used herein, shall mean at the particular time in question the maximum rate of interest which, under applicable law, may then be charged on this Note. If such maximum rate of interest changes after the date hereof and this Note provides for a fluctuating rate of interest, the Maximum Rate shall be automatically increased or decreased, as the case may be, without notice to Borrower from time to time as of the effective date of each change in such maximum rate. If applicable law ceases to provide for such a maximum rate of interest, the Maximum Rate shall be equal to eighteen percent (18%) per annum.

Borrower may prepay the principal of this Note as set forth above without premium or penalty. All regularly scheduled payments of the indebtedness evidenced by this Note and by any of the other Loan Documents shall be applied first to any accrued but unpaid interest then due and payable hereunder or thereunder and then to the principal amount then due and payable. All non-regularly scheduled payments shall be applied to such indebtedness in such order and manner as the holder of this Note may from time to time determine in its sole discretion. All payments and prepayments of principal of or interest on this Note shall be made in lawful money of the United States of America in immediately available funds, at the address of Bank indicated above, or such other place as the holder of this Note shall designate in writing to Borrower. If any payment of principal of or interest on this Note shall become due on a day which is not a Business Day (as hereinafter defined), such payment shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day and any such extension of time shall be included in computing interest in connection with such payment, As used herein, the term "Business Day" shall mean any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or any other day on which national banking associations are authorized to be closed. The books and records of Bank shall be prima facie evidence of all outstanding principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on this Note.

LOAN AGREEMENT AND/OR SECURITY DOCUMENTS

This Note has been executed and delivered pursuant to that certain Loan Agreement and/or Security Documents of even date herewith by and between Borrower and Bank ("Loan Agreement"), and is secured by, inter alia, the following:

Deed of Trust, Security Agreement and Assignment of Rents and Leases of even date herewith from

Borrower in favor of TIMOTHY BARTON, Trustee(s) for the benefit of the Bank, covering certain real property situated in Tarrant County, Texas, as more particularly described therein:

This Note, the Loan Agreement and all other documents evidencing, securing, governing, guaranteeing and/or pertaining to this Note, including but not limited to those documents described above, are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Loan Documents." The holder of this Note is entitled to the benefits and security provided in the Loan Documents.

Borrower agrees that no advances under this Note shall be used for personal, family or household purposes, and that all advances hereunder shall be used solely for business, commercial, investment, or other similar purposes.

Borrower agrees that upon the occurrence of any one or more of the following events of default ("Event of Default"):

- failure of Borrower to pay any installment of principal of or interest on this Note or on any other indebtedness of Borrower to Bank when due; or
- the occurrence of any event of default specified in any of the other Loan Documents; or
- (c) the bankruptcy or insolvency of, the assignment for the benefit of creditors by, or the appointment of a receiver for any of the property of, or the liquidation, termination, dissolution or death or legal incapacity of, any party liable for the payment of this Note, whether as maker, endorser, guarantor, surety or otherwise;

the holder of this Note may, at its option, without further notice or demand, (I) declare the outstanding principal balance of and accrued but unpaid interest on this Note at once due and payable, (ii) refuse to advance any additional amounts under this Note, (iii) foreclose all liens securing payment hereof, (iv) pursue any and all other rights, remedies and recourses available to the holder hereof, including but not limited to any such rights, remedies or recourses under the Loan Documents, at law or in equity, or (v) pursue any combination of the foregoing.

The failure to exercise the option to accelerate the maturity of this Note or any other right, remedy or recourse available to the holder hereof upon the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder shall not constitute a walver of the right of the holder of this Note to exercise the same at that time or at any subsequent time with respect to such Event of Default or any other Event of Default. The rights, remedies and recourses of the holder hereof, as provided in this Note and in any of the other Loan Documents, shall be cumulative and concurrent and may be pursued separately, successively or together as often as occasion therefore shall arise, at the sole discretion of the holder hereof. The acceptance by the holder hereof any payment under this Note which is Jess than the peyment in full of all amounts due and payable at the time of such payment shall not (i) constitute a waiver of or impair, reduce, release or extinguish any right, remedy or recourse of the holder hereof, or nullify any prior exercise of any such right, remedy or recourse, or (ii) impair, reduce, release or extinguish the obligations of any party liable under any of the Loan Documents as originally provided herein or therein.

This Note and all of the other Loan Documents are intended to be performed in accordance with, and only to the extent permitted by, all applicable usury laws. If any provision hereof or of any of the other Loan Documents or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall, for any reason and to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, neither the application of such provision to any other person or circumstance nor the remainder of the instrument in which such provision is contained shall be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law. It is expressly stipulated and agreed to be the intent of the holder hereof to at all times comply with the usury and other applicable laws now or hereafter governing the interest payable on the contrally with the usury and outer applicable law is ever revised, repeated or judicially interpreted so as to render usurious any amount called for under this Note or under any of the other Loan Documents, or contracted for, charged, taken, reserved or received with respect to the indebtedness evidenced by this Note, or if Bank's exercise of the option to accelerate the maturity of this Note, or if any prepayment by Borrower results in Borrower having paid any interest in excess of that permitted by law, then it is the express intent of Borrower and Bank that all excess amounts theretofore collected by Bank be credited on the principal balance of this Note (or, if this Note and all other indebtedness arising under or pursuant to the other Loan Documents have been paid in full, refunded to Borrower), and the provisions of this Note and the other Loan Documents immediately be deemed reformed and the amounts thereafter collectable hereunder and thereunder reduced, without the necessity of the execution of any new document, so as to comply with the then applicable law, but so as to permit the recovery of the fullest amount otherwise called for hereunder or thereunder. All sums paid, or agreed to be paid, by Borrower for the use, forbearance, detention, taking, charging, receiving or reserving of the indebtedness of Borrower to Bank under this Note or arising under or pursuant to the other Loan Documents shall, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, be amortized, prorated, allocated and spread throughout the full term of such indebtedness until payment in full so that the rate or amount of interest on account of such indebtedness does not exceed the usury ceiling from time to time in effect and applicable to such indebtedness for so long as such indebtedness is outstanding. To the extent federal Jaw permits Bank to contract for, charge or receive a greater amount of interest, Bank will rely on federal law instead of TEX. REV. CIV. STAT. ANN. art. 5069-1.04, as amended, for the purpose of determining the Maximum Rate. Additionally, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law now or hereafter in effect, Bank may, at its option and from time to time, implement any other method of computing the Maximum Rate under such Article 5069-1.04, as amended, or under other applicable law by giving notice, if required, to Borrower as provided by applicable Jaw now or hereafter in effect. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any of the other Loan Documents, it is not the intention of Bank to accelerate the maturity of any interest that has not accrued at the time of such acceleration or to collect unearned interest at the time of such acceleration.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, lender reserves a right of setoff in all borrower's accounts with lender (whether checking, savings, or some other account). This includes all accounts borrower holds jointly with someone else and all accounts borrower may open in the future. However, this does not include any IRA or

KEOGH accounts, or any trust accounts for which setoff would be prohibited by law. Borrower authorizes lender, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to charge or setoff all sums owing on the indebtedness against any and all such accounts, and, at lender's option, to administratively freeze all such accounts to allow lender to protect lender's charge and setoff rights provided in this paragraph.

In no event shall TEX. REV. CIV. STAT. ANN. art. 5069 Ch. 15 (which regulates certain revolving loan accounts and revolving tri-party accounts) apply to this Note. To the extent that TEX. REV. CIV. STAT. ANN. art. 5069-1.04, as amended, is applicable to this Note, the "indicated rate ceiling" specified in such article is the applicable ceiling; provided that, if any applicable law permits greater interest, the law permitting the greatest interest shall apply.

If this Note is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected in whole or in part by suit or through probate, bankruptcy or other legal proceedings of any kind, Borrower agrees to pay, in addition to all other sums payable hereunder, all costs and expenses of collection, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees.

Borrower and any and all endorsers and guarantors of this Note severally waive presentment for payment, notice of nonpayment, protest, demand, notice of protest, notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration and dishonor, diligence in enforcement and indulgences of every kind and without further notice hereby agree to renewals, extensions, exchanges or releases of collateral, taking of additional collateral, indulgences or partial payments, either before or after maturity.

AFFIDAVIT OF TIMOTHY L. BARTON

- 1. "My name is TIMOTHY L. BARTON. I am over the age of twenty-one years old, have never been convicted of a felony or a crime of moral turpitude, of sound mind, and fully competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein, and all such facts are true and correct in all material respects.
- 2. The following terms are used herein, as indicated: LC Aledo Tx, LLC ("LC Aledo"); JMJ Acquisitions, LLC ("JMJ"); Wall0l0, LLC ("Wall"), Somerset-Lost Creek Golf, Ltd. ("Somerset", or "Borrower"), Somerset-Lost Creek Management, LLC ("Somerset Management"), Beryl Artz Bypass Trust ("Artz Trust"), Rhonda Artz, as Trustee of the Beryl Artz Bypass Trust ("Trustee"), Rhonda Artz (individually) ("Artz"), and S. Gary Werley (As Substitute Trustee) ("Werley").
- 3. I have at times served as an officer or agent of LC Aledo, JMJ and Wall, as from time to time relevant herein.

- 4. JMJ entered into a contract to purchase real property ("Purchase Contract") consisting of 145.4999 acres located in Aledo, Tarrant County, Texas ("Property") then owned by Somerset which consists of a former golf course in July of 2017.
- 5. In February 2019 during the term of the Purchase Contract, Wall (a distinct entity from JMJ), agreed to loan to Somerset $300,000 upon which Somerset issued a Promissory Note to Wall ("Wall Note", or simply the "Note") in the principal amount of $300,000 at 1.0% interest (collectively, "Debt") which was due and payable on February 29, 2020 including all accrued interest. The Note was secured by a Deed of Trust, Security Agreement and Assignment of Rents and Leases ("Wall Deed of Trust", or simply the "Deed of Trust") executed on April 4, 2019 by Somerset on the Property and recorded in the real property records of Tarrant County under document number D219077623 on April 15, 2019 (collectively, the Wall Note and Wall Deed of Trust, and any and all other instruments received from or executed by the Borrower, are referred to as the "Wall Loan Agreement").
- 6. This Debt was issued by Wall, and those funds advanced by Wall, with the express understanding that in the event JMJ (or its assigns) did not close on the Purchase Contract then the Note would be paid back by Borrower on the maturity date agreed to therein and until such time the Deed of Trust would constitute a first lien on the Property.
- 7. The maturity date has passed and except for the amount credited to the Wall Note in the amount of $65,000 upon termination of the Purchase Contract, no payment has been made towards any principal or accrued interest of 1% per year and the Note is in default and a deficiency exists. Furthermore, a notice of default was sent to her giving her the opportunity to cure the default and pay the amounts owed as stated in such notice. I personally left her a voicemail at approximately 11 am on June 12, 2020 regarding the notice of default that had been sent.
- 8. A default under the Wall Note was also a default under the terms of the Wall Deed of Trust in addition other defaults under such deed of trust.
- 9. There was never any intent or discussion that the Note would be forgiven or terminated (along with the Wall Deed of Trust) if the Purchase Contract was terminated or not closed. In fact, the parties expressly agreed the Wall Note and Deed of Trust survived the termination of the Purchase Contract.
- 10. I was unaware at the time of any issuance of a preliminary title commitment and did not receive such commitment including as allegedly issued to JMJ who was not the lender under the Note, that referenced both a prior lien in favor of Textron Financial or a prior lien in favor of the Artz Trust, which upon information and belief is wholly owned and administered by Artz, the principal of Somerset. It was anticipated and agreed as a part of the Purchase Contract, and certainly a condition to the closing of such, that any and all prior liens of any sort or nature would have to be cleared by Somerset as the seller especially considering the title company under such commitment required such liens, which would appear on schedule C of the commitment, to be cleared and released. Artz on behalf of the Borrower represented to me on a number of occasions that they owned the Property outright and that there were no validly outstanding liens.
- 11. JMJ was never issued a title policy in connection with its failed attempt to purchase the Property. Wall, as a lender, did not, to my knowledge, ever receive a preliminary title commitment issued to it in connection with the Wall Loan Agreement and thus the existence of any priority liens were never disclosed to Wall including but not limited to _____ ("Artz Deed of Trust"). Wall, as a lender, did not request a title commitment nor obtain an actual title policy in connection with the Wall Loan Agreement.

- 12. The Wall Deed of Trust does not include an express reference to any such prior liens. And, in connection with the Wall Debt, and prior to the issuance of the Wall Debt, it was expressly represented to Wall by Somerset that they owned the Property outright and that there were no validly outstanding lien, and any such prior liens of any sort or nature would have to be cleared by Somerset as the borrower. Nonetheless and upon subsequent review, the Wall Deed of Trust excepted any permitted encumbrances which were those appearing on schedule B of a title commitment which are the permitted exceptions, however, the Artz Deed of Trust is required to be cleared under schedule C and thus is not a permitted exception or lien under the Wall Deed of Trust.
- 13. Somerset, as borrower, certainly did not then disclose to Wall, that it was borrower's intent to never make a single payment toward the Wall Debt, to fraudulently represent that there were no liens, not to disclose any prior liens to Wall, as lender, and or to not clear any prior liens (despite its representation that there were none), to default under the Wall Note, and after any foreclosure sale then naturally following such default, simply then seek to foreclose upon the previously nondisclosed, prior (and possibly fictious) lien held by the Artz or subsequently (the foregoing, and related acts in furtherance thereof, the "Artz Scheme to Defraud"); which it now appears was the case.
- 14. I was informed that the borrower would use the funds from the loan evidenced by the Wall Note and Wall Deed of Trust to pay off all debt and amounts owed by borrower.
- 15. In sum, the Debt was issued by Wall, and those funds advanced by Wall, with the express agreement that the Deed of Trust would constitute a first lien on the Property.
- 16. Subsequently, JMJ and Somerset agreed to terminate the Purchase Contract in June of 2019. Irrespective of the termination of the Purchase Contract, the Wall Note and Deed of Trust survived.
- 17. On May 29, 2020, after Somerset failed to pay the Debt when due, Wall, through separate counsel, sent a notice of default and demand letter to Somerset (including to Artz as President, Member, and Manger of Somerset Management as the general partner of Somerset) ("Wall Demand Letter(s)") which demanded payment of all remaining Debt by June 12, 2020 ("Wall Demand Date").
- 18. Only after Wall made numerous attempts to contact Artz on behalf of Somerset by email and phone to resolve the Debt, did Artz finally respond by phone stating that she had turned the matter over to counsel (who was not identified to Wall) who would follow up with Wall. However, Wall received no further communication.
- 19. Somerset still made no effort to contact Wall or make any effort thereafter. As a result, the Property was foreclosed on at the August 4, 2020 foreclosure sale ("August Foreclosure") by the substitute trustee on behalf of LC Aledo to whom Wall had conveyed the Wall Note and Deed of Trust.
- 20. On September 1, 2020, Somerset through its counsel, sent a "Demand for Rescission of August 4th Sale and Damages Wrongful Foreclosure" letter to Somerset including allegations that Somerset had informed Wall that it had been willing to pay the note which was not true and that it had never received the foreclosure notice. Apparently, Artz failed to forward her or Somerset's mail or change their addresses with the post office.
- 21. On September 9, 2020 Somerset filed its Plaintiffs Original Petition ("Plaintiffs Petition") seeking to declare the August Foreclosure void and in the alternative Plaintiff requested monetary damages and recorded a Lis Pendens against the Property on September 11, 2020.

- During September and without any notice or knowledge of any of the Defendants or the court, Plaintiff in concert with the Counter-Defendants conspired to take back the Property and initiated a sham foreclosure against the Property. Apparently, Artz as the Trustee for the Artz Trust had made a loan to Somerset (of which she was also President and either a member of or a member in the general partner) in the amount of $500,000.00 ("Artz Debt") which she agreed to on behalf of both the borrower and lender and which she executed and recorded a deed of trust on behalf of both the grantor for the benefit of the Artz Trust of which she is the Trustee on October 12, 2011 ("Artz Deed of Trust"). Upon information and belief, and with the need for additional discovery, this was essentially as sham transaction that was used by the Counter Defendants to defraud the LC Aledo of the Property. At no time did any of the Counter-Defendants disclose the existence of the Artz Deed of Trust or the debt of Somerset to the Artz Trust to any of the Defendants despite Somerset making numerous representations and warranties to Wall under the Wall Deed of Trust including that there were no other liens or debts on the Property and that it had authority to grant such security interest although the Artz Deed of Trust prohibited the granting of such a lien to Wall. On information and belief, Somerset had no intention of paying the debt to the Artz Trust- a debt which existed for about 9 years. Instead, they just used the sham foreclosure to wipe out the alleged debt and move the Property.
- It was only by accident that Defendants became aware of the Somerset foreclosure on January 12, 2021, for the first time when their counsel was running a search in the property records in preparation for the hearing to vacate the Default Judgment. Despite having email addresses of the Defendants and their transaction and litigation attorneys along with all of their physical addresses and phone numbers, Counter-Defendants made no effort to contact Defendants related to the Artz Foreclosure or its supposed acquired ownership of the Property. Instead Artz as the Trustee of the Artz Trust appointed Werley as the substitute trustee on September 15, 2020 (6 days after filing the Plaintiffs Petition) and had him supposedly send notice of such appointment and notice of foreclosure to be held on October 6, 2020 from herself as the Trustee of the Artz Trust to herself as the president and/or manager of Somerset on or about September 15, 2020 to the Lost Creek Address - an address she knew was on the Property and no longer occupied by Somerset or anyone else as she had vacated the building and locked it up and left it in such condition that it could not be occupied. Thus, the Counter-Defendants ensured that Defendants would have no notice of any pending or actual foreclosure of the Property and that the Artz Trust would be able to perpetrate a sham foreclosure and essentially steal the Property back.
- 24. The Defendants allegedly conducted the foreclosure sale under the Artz Deed of Trust on October 6, 2020 and recorded a Substitute Trustee's Deed to convey the property to the Artz Trust on the same date ("October Foreclosure"). Then only eight days later Plaintiff filed a proposed order for Default Judgment on their Plaintiffs Petition which was signed by the Court on November 24, 2020 as further described in the Defendants' Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment and Answer although setting aside the August Foreclosure was a moot issue.
- 25. Somerset breached the Wall Loan Agreement including the Wall Note and Wall Deed of Trust by failing to pay the Debt when due as demanded in the Wall Demand Letter.

- 26. Somerset breached the Wall Note by failing to pay the Debt subject to any credits, payments, or offset when due and as demanded in the Wall Demand Letter.
- 27. Somerset made certain representations and warranties and had certain obligations under the Wall Deed of Trust which were false or otherwise breached including but not limited to its failure to disclose the existence of the debt on the Property to the Artz Trust along with the Artz Deed of Trust which was an existing lien and debt of Somerset, its lack of authority to grant the Wall Deed of Trust given the prohibition in the Artz Deed of Trust, failure to cause "all debts and liabilities of any character" to be paid, and its obligation to "forever defend the title to the [Property] against the claims of all persons making any claims to the same or any part thereof."
- 28. Artz including on behalf of herself and Somerset and as Trustee of the Artz Trust committed fraud in a real estate transaction under section 27.01 of the Texas Business Organizations Conde when she made false statements related to the Property and/or failed to disclose material items as described herein related to the existence of the Artz Debt and Artz Deed of Trust which were relied upon by Wall0I0 when it entered into the Wall Loan including the Wall Deed of Trust.
- 29. Furthermore, Artz acting on behalf of Somerset had no intention of paying the Artz Debt owed by Somerset to the Artz Trust and instead intended to use the existence of the Artz Debt and Artz Deed of Trust to avoid the obligations under the Wall Deed of Trust and insulate itself against paying back the Wall Debt by using the sham foreclosure to wipe out the Wall Deed of Trust and get the Property back upon foreclosure by Wall. Additionally, Artz is in reality the alter ego of Somerset and/or the Artz Trust and essentially conducted a transaction between herself to commit the fraudulent foreclosure.
- 30. Plaintiff and Artz represented to Wall that there was no debt or liens on the Property despite the existence of the Artz Debt and Artz Deed of Trust at the time of entering into the Wall Loan which they knew was false with the intention that Wall010 would enter into the Wall Loan. As the President of Wall I relied on such statements in making the loan and otherwise if I had known that Wall was not going to get a first lien, I would not have made the loan on behalf of Wall. Furthermore, they fraudulently conducted the October Foreclosure to acquire the Property.
- 31. In the alternative, Plaintiff and Artz failed to disclose the existence of the Artz Debt or the Artz Deed of Trust at the time of entering into the Wall Loan knowing that Wall would likely not make the Wall Loan if it knew of the existence of the Artz Debt or Artz Deed of Trust. Furthermore, they failed to notify Wall of their intent to foreclose on the Artz Deed of Trust and intentionally ensured that Wall would not have notice.
- 32. In the alternative, Plaintiff and Artz failed to disclose the existence of the Artz Debt or the Artz Deed of Trust at to induce Wall into Wall Loan.
- 33. In the alternative to the above fraud related claims regarding the existence of the Artz Debt and Artz Deed of Trust, Plaintiff and Artz negligently misrepresented that no debt or liens existed on the Property at the time of the Wall Note.
- 34. Plaintiff conducted a wrongful foreclosure at the October Foreclosure by not giving proper notice to Wall (an essentially ensuring that Wall did not have notice) and conducting a foreclosure of a debt between themselves and LC Aledo requests that the October Foreclosure be declared void along with the Substitute Trustee executed on October 6, 2020.
- 35. On or about August 3, 2020, Wall010, LLC assigned the Wall Loan including Wall Note and Wall Deed of Trust to LC Aledo, LLC subject to a written assignment agreement.

- 36. In the alternative to a Wrongful Foreclosure, LC Alleges LC Aledo obtained good and marketable undivided, fee simple title to the Property (as further described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto) through the August Foreclosure to which it was legally in possession of at the time of the October Foreclosure and to which it is still in possession given lack of any notice from the Artz Trust of any claim to ownership resulting from the October Foreclosure. However, the Artz Deed of Trust was a sham transaction and not valid and the resulting October Foreclosure was an unlawful foreclosure based on the events described herein. As such, fee simple title should be granted to LC Aledo.
- 37. In the event the Court rules to void the October Foreclosure or otherwise grant LC Aledo's cause of action of Trespass to Try Title, LC Aledo seeks to quiet title regarding the existence of the cloud on title created by the Artz Deed of Trust which is invalid, void, and/or unenforceable.
- 38. The Counter-Defendants, including Werley as the substitute trustee who also has a duty to act impartially related to a foreclosure sale and to obtain the best price, conspired to commit the sham foreclosure which was fraudulent in order to deprive LC Aledo of the Property. Furthermore, the Counter-Defendants (excluding Werley) conspired to create the sham Artz Deed of Trust transaction to act as a block against any efforts of future lenders including Wall to pursue the debts owed to them by enforcing valid liens against the Property including the Wall Deed of Trust.
- 39. The court should pierce the veil of Somerset, Somerset Management, and/or the Artz Trust to hold Artz personally accountable for the fraud and other bad acts committed against the CounterPlaintiffs as described herein under which she personally benefited, pursuant to Section 21.223 of the Texas Business Organizations Code states. Alternatively, as related to the Artz Trust, CounterPlaintiffs request that the Court determine that Artz, individually, is the alter ego of the Artz Trust.

Mike – Thank you for your letter providing Mr. Barton's recommendation regarding how the Receiver should proceed to perform the mandate of the Receivership Order and recommending that he sell the Forney and DeSoto properties. We will carefully consider your recommendation but want to be clear about several inaccuracies in your letter and provide additional perspective that your proposal ignores.

First, as you know, the Receiver's possession and control over all Receivership Assets is required by the Receivership Order. He cannot pick and choose which properties to potentially exclude for Mr. Barton's continued control or development.

Second, many of the properties owned by Receivership Entities have existing and urgent financial obligations tied to them. For instance, property and liability insurance coverage, long past due utility payments, and payroll obligations owed on the Amerigold extended stay property. To date, the Receiver has recovered $25,000 in cash that can be used for these continuing and substantial obligations. All other cash, which is limited, is encumbered or necessary for the continued operation of several other properties. (The dearth of cash also explains why the Receivership Entities had apparently not been paying virtually any of their debts as they become due). Thus, even if the Receiver agreed with your proposal to sell the two properties you identified, those sales would take time and he would be required to liquidate additional assets to pay for the administration of the estate.

Third, like every other receivership property, the two which are the subject of your proposal carry more than one lien or encumbrance. As to Bellwether Ridge in Desoto, the latest information we have is that $17,957,371 is still owed on the HUD loan, and at least $3.8 million is owed to Pillar Income Asset Management for a second loan on the property. As to the Parc at Windmill Farms in Forney, the latest information we have is that $35,490,553 is still owed on that property's HUD loan and at least $7.3 million is owed to Pillar Income Asset Management. Even if we assume that the appraisal you cite (which we understand was prepared by an entity and/or individual that is closely connected to Mr. Barton) is accurate and not inflated, the best-case sale scenario on Desoto prior to closing costs and any commissions and legal fees would be $4,942,629–$6,242,629, while Forney would be $10,509,447–$13,209,447. In other words, even under Mr. Barton's assumptions, successful sales of these two properties alone will still be considerably less than $27 million.

Fourth, and perhaps most importantly at this point, there is no guarantee that the sale of these properties will result in any value to the Receivership Estate. As Mr. Barton is well aware, Pillar (the second lender on the properties) contends that prior to entry of the Receivership Order it exercised a right of conversion, which operates to extinguish (in whole) any interest in those properties held or claimed by the Receivership Entities. While the Receiver plans on vehemently contesting that purported conversion, the outcome is far from certain, and again, will require time and expense.

Fifth, as you note, the process of returning investor funds will be complex and therefore time-consuming and expensive. Thus, as noted above regarding the continuing cost of administering the estate for properties that require management and have accruing expenses, the estate will incur additional and extensive expenses related to other aspects of administration. Indeed, just selling the properties you identify will require additional cash outlays to comply with the statutory sales process that would govern the sale. At this very early juncture we have no estimate of what those costs may be and are unwilling to commit to or limit the receiver's efforts to an uncertain recovery on properties in which the estate may or may not hold any interest as providing sufficient funds to fully reimburse all investors, pay all creditors holding claims on those properties, and pay for the accrued and expected costs of administering the estate.

Finally, without waiver of the many other arguments, facts, and authorities that necessitate liquidating some assets in this case as soon as possible, we also direct you to the extremely broad discretion afforded judges supervising equitable receiverships. See SEC v. Hardy, 803 F.2d 1036.1037–38 (9th Cir. 1986). Due in part to the considerations listed above, your assertion that a receiver may not liquidate assets held by the estate prior to entry of a judgment is simply incorrect. On the contrary, in instances where the ongoing administration of the estate will drain assets otherwise available for distribution to defrauded investors, liquidation prior to entry of a judgment is expressly permissible. See S.E.C. v. TLC Investments & Trade Co., 147 F. Supp. 2d 1031, 1036 (C.D. Cal. 2001) ("[L]iquidation at this time, prior to entry of judgment, is appropriate because the evidence presented to the Court demonstrated that the TLC entities' liabilities were greater than their assets and because ongoing management alone will drain money out of the estate, money that otherwise could be returned to investors."). Additionally, but not inconsequently, the Fifth Circuit does not adhere to other circuits' (particularly the Second Circuit's) preference for use of bankruptcy procedures over receiverships. Thus, your citations to Second Circuit cases in which "reservations" are expressed about liquidation in the context of receiverships are unpersuasive and inapplicable here. See for example, the dozens if not hundreds of opinions arising from the Stanford Receiver's liquidation efforts, much of which occurred for several years before any final judgment was entered against Allan Stanford.

We are in agreement that the Receiver is required to marshal and preserve Receivership Assets. To the extent he must sell some properties to preserve others, he will do so in the most expeditious manner possible and will in all instances seek to maximize the value of all properties. We appreciate Mr. Barton's efforts to assist the Receiver and look forward to receiving the many documents and additional information that has been requested of him in that regard.

Re: Securities and Exchange Commission v. Barton, et al., No. 3:22-cv-2118-X

Dear Mr. Thomas:

We write today about a way forward to generate the $26 million allegedly owed to the lenders that is the subject of the above-entitled action. As we repeatedly have underscored, the receiver has taken possession of significant commercial real estate assets well in excess of $26 million. At the same time, Mr. Barton has not been convicted of any crime or adjudged liable for any violation of the securities laws. There is no legal authority for an order permitting a receiver, prior to a judgment in the underlying proceeding against the target of the receiver, to liquidate the target's assets in an effort to prepare for punishing him. At the very most, the receiver may secure such assets that will compensate those allegedly affected by the claimed violation of the securities laws.

We have briefed you on the ongoing, critical-path efforts in development projects that have received funds from loans to Wall entities. While, in many cases, these projects have been delayed by government approval processes and the pandemic, they stand poised to deliver tens of millions of dollars in value that will pay back lenders and benefit the equity owners of the projects. We will oppose premature, forced liquidation of these projects for salvage value before the development process is complete. Such actions are inconsistent with the pre-judgment authorities of any receiver in a securities case and the property rights of private citizens against whom no charge of wrongdoing has been proven. See SEC v. Am. Bd. of Trade, Inc., 830 F.2d 431, 436 (2d Cir. 1987) ("equity receiverships should not be used to effect the liquidation of defendants in actions brought under the securities laws"); SEC v. San Francisco Reg'l Ctr. LLC, No. 17-CV-00223-RS, 2018 WL 11436314, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 15, 2018) ("the ordinary rule is that a receiver should not be authorized to liquidate assets").

Premature liquidation of ongoing real estate development projects is all the more improper because, if managed properly, those projects will produce more than $26 million in liquidity. Herein we propose a plan to create more than that amount, which represents the outer limit of any legitimate receiver interest. Specifically, Mr. Barton would be prepared to consent, after review of terms and under appropriate circumstances, to the sale of two properties owned by Enoch Investments LLC. The properties—in Forney and DeSoto—are fully built apartment complexes whose construction was financed by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. As these projects were completed before any Wall entity was ever established, they are not the subject of lender funds. They are, however, mature and, thus, their liquidation would not significantly destroy their value.

Attached please find an independent valuation by the manager of Silverlake Capital LLC, a mortgage broker, for two the properties held by Enoch: apartment complexes at Forney (Parc @ Windmill Farms) and DeSoto (Bellwether Ridge), Texas. We have buyers prepared to purchase the properties at or near the valuations therein, creating, we project, well in excess of $27 million. Mr. Barton would consent to the sale of those two properties and to placing $27 million of the proceeds into a special fund for the repayment of lenders subject to this matter, as further described below. The balance of the net proceeds should be returned to Enoch Investments LLC. The $27 million fund should be more than enough to cover the alleged liabilities to the lenders subject to this matter and the fees associated with a short receivership.

Mr. Barton is also open to consenting to the sale of a third mature property (located at Ingleside, Texas) held by Enoch Investments LLC. While unnecessary to address the outer limits of the receiver's mandate, the time is potentially right to sell these properties as an economic matter, and the receiver's existence limits our ability to do so directly.

Once the proposed valuations are verified and the sale process of those properties is initiated, the receiver should immediately return control of all other Barton-related entities and assets to Mr. Barton. That would include control of Mr. Barton's records, electronic files, offices, and residence. Again, there is only one legitimate purpose for the receiver's continued existence: Ensuring funds are available to repay the lenders subject to this action. The proposed course of action will so ensure and should end the need for further action by the receiver.

We note that securing $26 million in funds is only part of the problem. Identifying the real lenders and obtaining their agreement to have funds returned in a manner consistent with U.S. law will require considerable effort. Mr. Barton assembled a team in 2019 to attempt payments to the lenders subject to this action. That team insisted that the funds be returned to the accounts that funded the loans in the first instance and that, where appropriate, U.S. taxes be withheld from certain interest payments as required by U.S. law. Michael Fu interfered with this process every step of the way by insisting that funds be repaid to accounts of his choosing and that U.S. taxes not be withheld from any repayments. Mr. Fu also interfered with efforts to contact the true lenders. One explanation for his obstruction became apparent as Barton team inquiries and civil litigation uncovered lenders that, in many cases (accounting for more than 70 percent of the loaned funds), were simply cut-outs to obscure that funding was provided by Haibo Jiang, a Chinese Communist Party officer.

Any fund to reimburse lenders must account for these significant federal anti-money laundering and tax law issues that were an obstacle to repayment in 2019. We look forward to sharing additional information regarding these concerns at the appropriate time.

Please note that there is no legitimate reason or authority to liquidate assets owned by Mr. Barton's entities. The Receivership Order is clear that there are only two purposes of the receivership: "marshaling and preserving all assets of the Receivership Entities." See Receivership Order [ECF No. 29] at 2. The courts have repeatedly held that equity receiverships should not be used to liquidate defendants in actions brought under the securities laws. See SEC v. Am. Bd. of Trade, Inc., 830 F.2d 431, 436 (2d Cir. 1987) (expressing being "disturbed" by attempted use of receivership to liquidate defendant entities); SEC v. High Park Inv. Grp., Inc., No. SACV051090CJCMLGX, 2006 WL 8464226, at *4 (C.D. Cal. June 19, 2006) (holding that a district court's "broad discretion in determining the appropriate relief in an equity receivership" did not create rare case in which a receiver could liquidate); Eberhard v. Marcu, 530 F.3d 122, 132 (2d Cir. 2008) (reiterating "strong reservations as to the propriety of allowing a receiver to liquidate [an estate]."). This is particularly so here, where a plan has been presented to secure and preserve more than enough assets to address the subject matter of the above entitled action.

Sincerely.

Michael Edney
